The Economics of UN Peacekeeping Nadège Sheehan, 2011-07-25 Peacekeeping is a security concept that is very representative of the current interventionism multilateralism human rights and humanitarian ideas UN peacekeeping plays an important role in international security and includes various activities that go beyond the original roles assigned to UN armed forces e.g. humanitarian aid election supervision disarmament mine clearance civilian protection and peacebuilding The problem is to define the economic efficiency of these operations and to develop some recommendations in the context of an economic globalization process Although UN peacekeeping has shortcomings it must be considered essential for organizing and defending the world politico economic order UN peacekeeping is a political activity but its production strongly depends on nations economic considerations Governments make political decisions that also take into account the economic gains they expect to obtain from their contribution to any specific mission With low means and inadequate strategies to meet the challenges UN peacekeeping must pay particular attention to resolving the problems of free riding and of prisoner's dilemma in contributions that delay deployments and create significant financial problems Understanding how peacekeeping can be most cost effectively carried out while considering the importance of legitimacy in interventions is essential This book believes that regional organizations can ease the UN's financial responsibility by managing conflicts in their regions But to be most effective they must involve the UN in their interventions This book also emphasizes UN peacekeeping trust funds as the key to better financial effectiveness It strongly recommends that NATO be empowered by the UN with the role of global peace police and proposes the establishment of a UN high ranking team of international specialists in peacekeeping issues This research should be of interest to students and researchers looking at international and political economics as well as international relations defence security and peace studies

Obstacles to Peacebuilding Graciana del Castillo, 2017-03-16 Combining the insights of a seasoned practitioner with the academic rigor of a meticulous policy and risk analyst del Castillo discusses the major obstacles to peacebuilding that need to be removed before war torn countries can move towards peace stability and prosperity As Secretary General António Guterres assumes leadership in January 2017 a top priority must be to address the bleak peacebuilding record where over half of the countries under UN watch relapse back into conflict within a decade While policy debate and the academic literature have focused on the security political and social aspects of the war to peace transition this book focuses on the economic transition that is economic reconstruction or the political economy of peace which in the author's view is the much neglected aspect of peacebuilding The book argues that rebuilding war torn states effectively has acquired a new sense of urgency since extremist groups increasingly recruit people by providing jobs and services to those deprived of them due to government and economic failures Based on past lessons and best practices of the last quarter of a century the author makes recommendations to move forward and improve the record It will be of great use to students and scholars of peacebuilding as well as policymakers in national governments donor countries and international organizations involved in peacebuilding statebuilding and development inform the transformation of the socio economic fabric of the society The contributions engage with existing statebuilding and peacebuilding debates while bringing in critical political economy perspectives Specifically they analyse processes of post conflict economy formation and the navigation between livelihood needs local translations of the liberal hegemonic order and different sparse manifestations of welfare states The book concludes that a sustainable peace requires the formation of peace economies economies that work towards reducing structural inequalities and grievances of the pre conflict period as well as addressing the livelihood concerns of citizens This book was originally published as a special issue of Civil Wars Regional Economic Outlook April 2004: Sub-Saharan Africa INTERNATIONAL MONETARY
