Twenty years after the release of the first edition of egg-tripping, Nikki Giovanni has added ten new poems and George Ford new illustrations to this provocative collection of poetry, which captures the essence of the African American experience in ways that have special relevance and appeal for young people.

"In Giovanni's egg-tripping, young people are taught how to fly, to know, and to remember who they are. There is deliverance for them in these poems of struggle and liberation. . . . Good that there is Giovanni here for them, best that she be among us all, writing the images and sounding the notes and verse of a better world."

—Virginia Hamilton, from the foreword

"These poems are sly and seductive, intoxicating and unknown, tough, rare and proud."

—The New York Times Book Review
