Harvests of Liberation Ahmad Shokr, 2025-05-20 In the first half of the twentieth century a major change occurred in Egyptian nationalist understandings of imperialism and economic sovereignty Where once the volatilities of foreign markets and capital were seen as the main threat over time large landowners and their imperial allies were targeted as the principal obstacles to the country's industrial progress The perceived locus of imperial domination shifted from the realm of circulation to the realm of production Harvests of Liberation situates this transformation in the midcentury dynamics of agrarian capitalism in Egypt Ahmad Shokr tells a story of decolonization through the lens of cotton Egypt's prized export He follows a range of actors colonial advisors nationalist leaders agrarian reformers merchant financiers landowners and rural workers whose interactions moved the levers of the cotton trade from institutions that facilitated accumulation on an imperial scale to new sites of control within the nation state Amidst depression and war the transformation of Egypt's cotton economy prompted nationalists to embrace policies of land reform and industrialization and adopt a new conception of history Ultimately Shokr argues these efforts set the stage for the construction of a postcolonial republic under Gamal Abdel Nasser where national liberation became equated with national development
