past through the lens of the enduring allure of ancient Egypt Written by an international team of scholars the volume investigates how territories around the world have engaged with and have been inspired by ancient Egypt and its study and how that engagement has evolved over time Chapters present a specific territory from different perspectives including institutional and national while examining a range of transnational links as well The volume thus touches on multiple strands of scholarship embracing not only Egyptology but also social history the history of science and reception studies It will appeal to amateurs and professionals with an interest in the histories of Egypt archaeology and science

A World History of Nineteenth-Century Archaeology Margarita Díaz-Andreu García, 2007-11-22 Margarita Diaz Andreu offers an innovative history of archaeology during the nineteenth century encompassing all its fields from the origins of humanity to the medieval period and all areas of the world The development of archaeology is placed within the framework of contemporary political events with a particular focus upon the ideologies of nationalism and imperialism Diaz Andreu examines a wide range of issues including the creation of institutions the conversion of the study of antiquities into a profession public memory changes in archaeological thought and practice and the effect on archaeology of racism religion the belief in progress hegemony and resistance

Receptions of the Ancient Near East in Popular Culture and Beyond Agnes Garcia-Ventura, Lorenzo Verderame, 2020-03-01 This book is an enthusiastic celebration of the ways in which popular culture has consumed aspects of the ancient Near East to construct new realities The editors have brought together an impressive line up of scholars archaeologists philologists historians and art historians to reflect on how objects ideas and interpretations of the ancient Near East have been remembered constructed reimagined mythologized or indeed forgotten within our shared cultural memories The exploration of cultural memories has revealed how they inform the values structures and daily life of societies over time This is therefore not a collection of essays about the deep past but rather about the stories we tell ourselves about ourselves

Saddling the Dogs Deborah Manley, 2009-07-15 In the absence of horses saddle the dogs This Arab proverb suggesting the uncompromising determination of nomads to keep moving whatever the obstacles epitomizes also the travelling ethos of many early visitors to the exotic East The journeys examined here are linked by the light they shed on the experience of travel in Egypt Greece and the Ottoman Balkans and the Near East from the 17th to the early 20th century not so much what was seen as how one got there and how one got around once arrived the vicissitudes and travails both expected and strange that characterised the passage The purpose of the trips examined range from religious pilgrimages to diplomatic commercial and military journeys to middle class package tours Each of them is of interest for what it reveals about the realities of travel in Egypt the eastern Mediterranean and the Near East at different times the means by which travel was carried out the dangers and discomforts encountered and the preparations made The Association for the Study of Travel in Egypt and the Near East ASTENE is a registered educational charity promoting the study of the history of travel and travellers in the eastern Mediterranean from Greece and the Ottoman Balkans eastward to Turkey and the Levant Egypt

the Arabian Peninsula and the Mesopotamian region A World History of Nineteenth-Century Archaeology Margarita Diaz-Andreu, 2007-11-22 Margarita Diaz Andreu offers an innovative history of archaeology during the nineteenth century encompassing all its fields from the origins of humanity to the medieval period and all areas of the world The development of archaeology is placed within the framework of contemporary political events with a particular focus upon the ideologies of nationalism and imperialism Diaz Andreu examines a wide range of issues including the creation of institutions the conversion of the study of antiquities into a profession public memory changes in archaeological thought and practice and the effect on archaeology of racism religion the belief in progress hegemony and resistance Living Forever Hussein Bassir, 2019-09-03 Self presentation is the oldest and most common component of ancient Egyptian high culture It arose in the context of private tomb records where the character and role of an individual invariably a well to do non royal elite official or administrator were presented purposefully published by inscription and image to a contemporary audience and to posterity Living Forever Self presentation in Ancient Egypt looks at how and why non royal elites in ancient Egypt represented themselves through language and art on monuments tombs stelae and statues and in literary texts from the Early Dynastic Period to the Thirtieth Dynasty Bringing together essays by international Egyptologists and archaeologists from a range of backgrounds the chapters in this volume offer fresh insight into the form content and purpose of ancient Egyptian presentations of the self Applying different approaches and disciplines they explore how these self representations which encapsulated a discourse with gods and men alike yield rich historical and sociological information provide examples of ancient rhetorical devices and repertoire and shed light on notions of the self and collective memory in ancient Egypt

Scribbling through History Chloé Ragazzoli, Ömür Harmansah, Chiara Salvador, Elizabeth Froom, 2018-05-31 For most people the mention of graffiti conjures up notions of subversion defacement and underground culture Yet the term was coined by classical archaeologists excavating Pompeii in the 19th century and has been embraced by modern street culture graffiti have been left on natural sites and public monuments for tens of thousands of years They mark a position in time a relation to space and a territorial claim They are also material displays of individual identity and social interaction As an effective socially accepted medium of self definition ancient graffiti may be compared to the modern use of social networks This book shows that graffiti a very ancient practice long hidden behind modern disapproval and street culture have been integral to literacy and self expression throughout history Graffiti bear witness to social events and religious practices that are difficult to track in normative and official discourses This book addresses graffiti practices in cultures ranging from ancient China and Egypt through early modern Europe to modern Turkey in illustrated short essays by specialists It proposes a holistic approach to graffiti as a cultural practice that plays a key role in crucial aspects of human experience and how they can be understood The Journal of Egyptian Archaeology, 2004 Exotisch, weisheitlich und uralt Thomas Glück, Ludwig D. Morenz, 2007 Archiv Orientální Bedřich Hrozný, 2005 Included section Book reviews A History of
