deeply with everyone whether you are old or young rich or poor religious or not traditional or modern It will touch you deeply awaken your spirituality and connect you to your true self allowing you to become the best version you can be Why do I think so negatively How can I break out of negative patterns Negative thinking is a tragic pattern that many of us fall prey to Sadly we do it because we've been programmed to do it One part of it stems from our basic culture of education and discipline which is a system based on punishments rather than rewards The children who do well and behave are ignored and the kids who cause problems are the ones who get all the attention We constantly hear You're stupid you're bad you're this you're that and we internalize it The other part of it comes from the rest of the culture media politics etc that is rooted in and founded upon convincing us that we are lacking something in our lives that they are going to fulfil This is called marketing If you already have everything how am I going to sell you something If you're already satisfied you're not a very good customer especially if what I'm selling is not something you need I need you to feel that there is something missing in you which my product is going to solve Either you are too dark or too fair your hair is too straight or too curly you're too fat or too thin you're wearing last year's model of jeans This is how advertising works I feel anxiety in many situations Is anxiety a bad thing First of all it's important to remember that nothing we experience is bad The only bad thing is thinking that what we feel is wrong because then we end up separating ourselves from ourselves We want to be good we want to think and act in good ways so the minute we label something inside of us as bad we've cut ourselves off from it So when we examine anxiety it is not bad per se However what does it do It makes our heart race When we feel stressed and anxious our heart rate rushes our blood pressure goes up all of our energy literally rushes to the extremities It's our fight or flight response We are biologically primed and ready in that moment to either fight or flee That response would be very useful if we were living in a cave and had to protect ourselves from tigers or bears or warring tribes but it's not very helpful in the world we live in We need that rush of adrenaline to be able to outrun a threat or to climb a tree But we cannot live in a state of openness and expansion while simultaneously running or fighting Either the world is something to be afraid of or the world is something to be one with but it can't be both Every minute that we feel anxiety what our body is telling us on a physiological level is that this situation is dangerous And that's not a healthy way to live The question then becomes how do we stop feeling anxious Every time you feel anxious ask yourself Is this really a situation where I want to separate myself from the world And if not then ask yourself how you can expand the way you think of yourself Ground yourself in your breath Try to experience a state of oneness with the people around you rather than a sense of separation because where there's oneness there's no fear Where there's fear you feel separation Anxiety takes us away from the truth of who we are And on a spiritual path we want to be closer to who we are What is meditation Meditation is a noun not a verb It is more who we are than just what we do seated on a cushion for a few minutes or hours each day It is knowing and living as the True Self It is not a complex esoteric skill that only experts can perform such as feats of gymnastics or long division without using paper Meditation is what gets us back in touch with who we really are but without judgement or analysis Meditation creates stillness in the mind so that we are able to genuinely live and experience the Truth of who we are Our problems are not outside they are inside Our minds run around and repeat stories to us stories that we've taken in from our culture our life Stories that we're too much of this not enough of that that we should be like this and not like that and so on It's that judging commentating voice We internalize that voice and most of us hear it all day long on repeat If we listened to our thoughts intently we would notice that the vast majority of them are utterly useless and make little sense Then there comes in thoughts about who others are who they should be what they're doing what they should be doing and all of the judgement yearning longing wishing and aversion that clog our minds It's not who we are it's just what our thinking mind has been habituated to doing mechanically Meditation gives us the experience of what it would be like if this weren't going on all the time It's not a very complex skill but the lack of complexity doesn't mean it's easy This is because of the games that the mind plays Don't think that unless you've got lots of free time to learn meditation you won't succeed If you're able to just breathe it out as it comes whatever it is that comes and bring your awareness back to the breath you are meditating and it will ground you back in the truth of who you are Meditation brings us back into a place of real awareness awareness without judgement and analysis open eyed witnessing of who we are and what's there when we remove the non self from our identification Through meditation we are able to peel back layer after layer

The Identification, Development, and Utilization of Human Talents University of Pittsburgh. Project Talent Office, Marion F. Shaycoft, 1963 God: Rational Theology Guro Bert Domingo, 2012-01-24 Rational Theology In Search of World Peace Humanity is One The greatest single source of human conflict has to do with beliefs or of faith that one holds The variety of human ideas most often irreconcilable with one another has lead to divisions and endless schisms There is a great need to accommodate and harmonize ideas by convergence at the point where agreement is possible Rationalization convergence and unification at the center is necessary to achieve world peace However this is only possible when rational people can discuss openly without fear of each other The steps to accomplish this enormous task can only start with the individual This is the goal of this work A person needs to have sufficient knowledge to understand the various facets of life This would include a philosophical base of values with a worldview encompassing and transcending all biases and prejudices inherent in and inculcated by the culture No religious scientific or traditional views must be sacrosanct to analysis With adequate knowledge one gains freedom from ignorance and fear This book Rational Theology is a guidebook for any individual desiring to discover real freedom It is a companion of the authors book Freedom Trilogy Freedom Trilogy is a self help and how to book It helps develop thinking and reasoning abilities It challenges the mind to gain new perspectives It contains the ISA Introspective Self analysis method of discovering ourselves and gaining freedom from fear and anxieties Through Knowledge Ignorance and Fear are banished Freedom Attained once we discover and understand ourselves
