A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V4 18th C, The Other Rise of the Novel in Eighteenth-Century French Fiction Olivier Delers, 2015-09-01 The rise of the novel paradigm and the underlying homology between the rise of a bourgeois middle class and the coming of age of a new literary genre continues to influence the way we analyze economic discourse in the eighteenth century French novel Characters are often seen as portraying bourgeois values even when historiographical evidence points to the virtual absence of a self conscious and coherent bourgeoisie in France in the early modern period Likewise the fact that the nobility was a dynamic and diverse group whose members had learned to think in individualistic and meritocratic terms as a result of courtly politics is often ignored The Other Rise of the Novel calls for a radical revision of how realism the language of self interest and commercial exchanges and idealized noble values interact in the early modern novel It focuses on two novels from the seventeenth century Furetiere's Roman bourgeois and Lafayette's Princesse de Clèves and four novels from the eighteenth century Prevost's Manon Lescaut Graffigny's Lettres d'une Puvienne Rousseau's La Nouvelle Héloïse and Sade's Les infortunes de la vertu It argues that eighteenth century French fiction does not reflect material culture mimetically and that character action is best analyzed by focusing on the social and discursive exchanges staged by the text rather than by trying to create parallels between specific behavior and actual historical changes The novel produces its own reality by transforming characters and their stories into alternative social models different articulations of how individuals should define their economic relations to others The representation of interpersonal relations often highlights personal conceptions of private interest that cannot be easily reconciled with the traditional narrative of a transition towards economic modernity Realism then is not only about verisimilar storytelling and psychological depth it is an epistemological questioning about the type of access to reality that a particular genre can give its readers Seducing the Eighteenth-Century French Reader Paul J. Young, 2016-12-05 As he demonstrates that narratives of seduction function as a master plot for French literature in the eighteenth century Paul Young argues that the prevalence of this trope was a reaction to a dominant cultural discourse that coded the novel and the new practice of solitary reading as dangerous seductive practices Situating his study in the context of paintings educational manuals and criticism that caution against the act of reading Young considers both canonical and lesser known works by authors that include Rousseau Sade Bastide Laclos Crillon fils and the writers of two widely read libertine novels How these authors responded to a cultural climate that viewed literature and especially the novel as seductive sheds light on the perils and pleasures of authorship the ways in which texts interact with the larger cultural discourse and what eighteenth century texts tell us about the dangers of reading or writing Ultimately Young argues the seduction not in the text but by the text raises questions about the nature of pleasure in eighteenth century French literature and culture French Novelists, Manners and Ideas, from the Renaissance to the Revolution Frederick Charles Green, 1928 Essays on French Novelists George Saintsbury, 1891

Seventeenth-Century French Writers Françoise Jaouën, 2003 Essays on French writers of the seventeenth century or Classical century What best defines the literature of this period are political order and the growing awareness of literature as a separate domain in need of rules and regulations Discusses the political turmoil during this period as well as the Reformation and the Counter Reformation encouraging research on ancient texts methods of research and the standardization of the French language An American Voltaire E. Joe Johnson, Byron R. Wells, 2012-11-30 This collection of essays was assembled to honor the memory of the late eminent Voltaire scholar J Patrick Lee It includes seventeen essays by prominent scholars from the United States Canada the United Kingdom and France on a variety of topics in French eighteenth century studies Essay titles include A New Genre l Op ra moral Moral Opera in Eighteenth Century France Voltaire and the Uses of Censorship The Example of the Lettres Philosophiques Enlightenment Intertextuality The Case of Heraldry in the Encyclop die m thodique Sex as Satire in Voltaire s Fiction Violence Levity and the Dictionary in Old Regime France Chaudon s Dictionnaire anti philosophique L abb l amazone le bon roi et les frelons Greuze s Self Portraits Figures of Artistic Identity From Forest to Field Sylvan Elegists of Eighteenth Century France The Falsification of Voltaire s Letters and the Public Persona of the Author From the Lettres secretes 1765 to the Commentaire historique 1776 The Baron de Saint Castin Bricaire de la Dixmerie and Azakia 1765 John Law and the Rhetoric of Calculation Le Roi des Bulgares Was Voltaire s Satire on Frederick the Great just too Opaque Voltaire and the Voyage to Rome Textual liaisons Voltaire Pam la and Don Quixote Les petits livres du grand homme pol mique et combat philosophique chez Voltaire Sentimental Horror Enlightenment Tragedy and the Rise of the Genre Terrible Voltaire and the Comic Genre Polemics and Rhetoric The Evolution of the French Novel, 1641-1782 Elaine Showalter, 2016-04-19 In France between 1641 and 1782 the romance developed into the novel Mr Showalter s intensive study of the novel particularly during the critical period 1700 1720 shows that an important movement toward nineteenth century realism was taking place To trace this development the author has selected five phenomena time space names money and the narrator and follows their treatment throughout the period to show why romance tended toward the novel To show the working out of these ideas there is a detailed analysis of one novel Robert Challe s Les Illustres Francoises which can be precisely located in the chain of literary influence Its central theme of the individual in conflict with society was well suited to the forms available to the eighteenth century novelist Consequently it appears repeatedly in important novels of the period showing that the evolutionary process worked to some degree even on

Larsen, 2017-09-29 The present volume covers 30 Pre Revolutionary French women providing a representative sampling of their manifold and varied contributions to intellectual and cultural history This volume is unique in its grouping of essentially French writers from the Pre Revolutionary period The authors included here range from those prominent because of their social position or literary fame to those slowly becoming part of a new canon of Old Regime women writers authors whose works were known to their contemporaries but who have slipped into near invisibility in the following centuries until their recent rediscovery and reassessment

The Rise of the French Novel Martin Turnell, 1978 Martin Turnell's The Rise of the French Novel is a successor to his highly praised earlier books The Novel in France 1951 and The Art of French Fiction 1959 His aim now however is somewhat different as can be seen from the title It is well known that the reputations of many writers novelists especially diminish for a period following their deaths Although in the eighteenth century Marivaux Crillon fils and Rousseau all enjoyed a great deal of popularity during their lifetimes it is only recently that they have been subject to truly searching studies Yet they remain little read in English speaking countries Turnell emphasizes that in spite of the hostility of French critics and the fact that the novel did not reach its supremacy even in France until the nineteenth century the beginning of its great rise was indeed with such writers as these Their strong influence led such nineteenth century novelists as Stendhal and Flaubert to all kinds of changes related to style the enormous increase in the range of subject matter and the marked development of language Flaubert is the most striking example It was pointed out some time ago by Eisenstein that Madame Bovary anticipates cinematic technique One of Turnell's most interesting chapters explores the connections between the novel and film in general and Madame Bovary in particular In our own time two of the most popular French novelists in both the United States and England are Alain Fournier and Radiguet They are given enthusiastic appreciations in Turnell's thoughtful book
