Futures Of Jacques Derrida Cultural Memory In The Present:

Futures Richard Rand, Jacques Derrida, 2001 Seven eminent authors all known for their work in deconstruction address the millennial issue of our futures promises prophecies projects and possibilities including the possibility that there may be no future at all Speculative in every sense these essays are marked by a common concern for the act of reading as it is practiced in the work of Jacques Derrida The contributors Geoffrey Bennington Paul Davies Peter Fenves Werner Hamacher Jean Michel Rabat Elisabeth Weber and Jacques Derrida himself study a range of authors including Pascal Kant Hegel Leibniz Marx Benjamin Koyr Arendt and Lacan These readings are neither prescriptive definitive nor definitional Each essay seeks out in the work it studies those moments that pronounce or propose futures that enable speculation moments in which the speculator has to make promises As Derrida says in his essay Between lying and acting acting in politics manifesting one's own freedom through action transforming facts anticipating the future there is something like an essential affinity The lie is the future Or in the words of Werner Hamacher The futurity of language its inherent promising capacity is the ground but a ground with no solidity whatever for all present and past experiences meanings and figures which could communicate themselves in it These essays though arising from deconstruction point out the ways in which deconstruction has yet to occur and they do so by scanning the unattainable horizons marked off by thinkers at the forefront of our modern era

Performing Memory in Art and Popular Culture Liedeke Plate, Anneke Smelik, 2013-04-02 This volume pursues a new line of research in cultural memory studies by understanding memory as a performative act in art and popular culture The authors take their cue from the observation that art and popular culture enact memory and generate processes of memory They do memory and in this doing of memory new questions about the cultural dimensions of memory arise How do art objects and artistic practices perform the past in the present What is their relationship to the archive Does the past speak in the performed past or do we speak to it To what purpose do objects recall And for whom do they recollect Here authors combine a methodological focus on memory as performance with a theoretical focus on art and popular culture as practices of remembrance The essays in the book thus analyze what is at stake in the complex processes of remembering and forgetting of recollecting and disremembering of amnesia and anamnesis that make up cultural memory Middle English

Romance and the Craft of Memory Jamie McKinstry, 2015 An examination of the depiction and function of memory in a variety of romances including Troilus and Criseyde and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Comparative Criticism:

Volume 24, Fantastic Currencies in Comparative Literature: Gothic to Postmodern E. S. Shaffer, 2002 This new volume looks at Fantastic Currencies money modes media The Future of Religion Richard Rorty, Gianni

Vattimo, 2005-02-02 Though coming from different and distinct intellectual traditions Richard Rorty and Gianni Vattimo are united in their criticism of the metaphysical tradition The challenges they put forward extend beyond philosophy and entail a reconsideration of the foundations of belief in God and the religious life They urge that the rejection of metaphysical truth does not necessitate the death of religion instead it opens new ways of imagining what it is to be religious ways that emphasize charity solidarity and irony This unique collaboration which includes a dialogue between the two philosophers is notable not only for its fusion of pragmatism Rorty and hermeneutics Vattimo but also for its recognition of the limits of both traditional religious belief and modern secularism In Anticlericalism and Atheism Rorty discusses Vattimo's work Belief and argues that the end of metaphysics paves the way for an anti essentialist religion Rorty's conception of religion determined by private motives is designed to produce the gospel's promise that henceforth God will not consider humanity as a servant but as a friend In The Age of Interpretation Vattimo who is both a devout Catholic and a frequent critic of the church explores the surprising congruence between Christianity and hermeneutics in light of the dissolution of metaphysical truth As in hermeneutics interpretation is central to Christianity which introduced the world to the principle of interiority dissolving the experience of objective reality into listening to and interpreting messages The lively dialogue that concludes this volume moderated and edited by Santiago Zabala analyzes the future of religion together with the political social and historical aspects that characterize our contemporary postmodern postmetaphysical and post Christian world

American/Medieval
 Gillian R. Overing, Ulrike Wiethaus, 2016-10-10 This volume offers a dialogue with and through the medieval informed by cultural categories of performativity and simultaneity in on line media architecture film poetry and social formations The articles depart from Medievalism Studies and attempt to answer questions such as How do medievalists artists writers and entertainment industries communicate replicate and evoke medieval formations How do national and transnational discursive fields relate to understandings of the medieval in its many unstable states Where are the communal memory sites and what functions do they serve for those who are associated with them Where are the medieval disjunctions and conjunctions of race ethnicity and time in a settler society And what do place nature and landscape have to do with it

Visions and ruins
 Joshua Davies, 2018-04-11 Visions and ruins explores the production of cultural memory in the Middle Ages and the uses the medieval past has been put to in modernity Working with texts in Old English Middle English and Latin as well as visual and material culture it traces connections in time place language and media to explore the temporal complexities of cultural production and subject formation The book interrogates critical poetic artistic and political archives to reveal exchanges of cultural energy and influence between past and present offering new ways of knowing the medieval past and the contemporary moment

Biblical Animality after Jacques Derrida
 Hannah M. Strømme, 2018-08-10 A new theoretical and exegetical angle on the Bible and animal studies According to Genesis humans are made in God's image but animals are not Hannah M Strømme challenges this view by critiquing the boundary between humans and animals in the Bible through the work of philosopher Jacques Derrida Building on Derrida's The Animal That Therefore I Am Strømme brings to light significant moments where the lines between the divine human and animal are ambiguous in a rich range of biblical texts from Noah as the first carnivorous man in Genesis 9 to Revelation's beasts Features A contribution to research on Jacques

Derrida and deconstruction An examination of Derrida's work on the human/animal boundary Critical engagement with the way the Bible is frequently held up as a point of blame for anthropocentrism Hope in a Secular Age David Newheiser, 2019-12-19 Uses premodern theology and postmodern theory to show the endurance of religious and political commitments through the practice of hope Dead Time Elissa Marder, 2001 This book explores how modernity gives rise to temporal disorders when time cannot be assimilated and integrated into the realm of lived experience It turns to Baudelaire and Flaubert in order to derive insights into the many temporal disorders such as trauma addiction and fetishism that pervade contemporary culture The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Reenactment Mark Franko, 2017-11-15 The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Reenactment brings together a cross section of artists and scholars engaged with the phenomenon of reenactment in dance from a practical and theoretical standpoint Synthesizing myriad views on danced reenactment and the manner in which this branch of choreographic performance intersects with important cultural concerns around appropriation this Handbook addresses originality plagiarism historicity and spatiality as it relates to cultural geography Others topics treated include transmission as a heuristic device the notion of the archive as it relates to dance and as it is frequently contrasted with embodied cultural memory pedagogy theory of history reconstruction as a methodology testimony and witnessing theories of history as narrative and the impact of dance on modernist literature and relations of reenactment to historical knowledge and new media Memory and Recovery in Times of Crisis Fiona Larkan, Fiona Murphy, 2017-11-09 This book presents a social scientific reading of the challenges of memory and recovery in times of crisis Drawing on different interpretations of what constitutes crisis this collection uses lenses of economics identity and commemoration to question how memory and recovery is being constituted through larger discourses of political claims of moving forward healing and identity Memory and Recovery in Times of Crisis examines how memory is dis or re-interred through social processes and further how recovered memories are challenged or legitimized It also presents a set of questions that will stimulate further reflections on what kind of role understandings of memory of crisis can play in recovery Given the world we find ourselves living in in 2017 a world subject to multiple intersecting crises how we understand the dynamics of memory and recovery is a pressing issue indeed This book will appeal to both scholars and students of anthropology and sociology Cultural Memory Jeannette Marie Mageo, 2001-02-01 How do foreign schemas and objects enter into indigenous ways of understanding the world How are the cultural self and the cultural other constructed in acts of remembering What is memory's role in the generation or degeneration of cultural meanings In contemporary Pacific societies these questions are not merely the subject of scholarly debate but speak to pressing life concerns This volume offers fruitful responses to such questions providing insights into colonial memory and its limitations and proposing explanations that illumine cultural memory processes These processes in turn elucidate ways of authoring cultural history and shed light on cultural identity which like other forms of identity is built from a remembered self Contributors explore valorizations of certain aspects of the remembered past amnesias about other aspects Both are part of the rhetoric of colonizing cultures and of cultural identity and nationhood in many contemporary Pacific societies The provocative analyses and responses offered here are both academic and personal close engagement with individuals and their ways of life is evident These are at once intellectual journeys through the colonial landscapes of Pacific memory and attempts to understand the problems of politics and personhood cultural identity and meaning for real people in real places Cultural Memory confronts many of the most central anthropological issues of our time Directory of Published Proceedings ,2004 The Theatre of Anxiety Leila Michelle Vaziri,2024-10-21 We are living in times when populism war and climate change are all sources of anxiety caused by overlapping crises Anxiety is a phenomenon that is not just reflected everywhere around us but is also increasingly manifesting itself in contemporary drama particularly in the last five to ten years many new British dramas and theatre productions have given a stage to anxiety Given this central role of anxiety the aim of this study is to outline the interplay of theatre and anxiety on both a thematic and aesthetic level It argues that a strand of contemporary theatre that combines topics of social ecological technological and pandemic importance with investigations into the philosophical and aesthetic implications of anxiety has come to prominence in recent years the theatre of anxiety This is traced across exemplary readings of a number of contemporary British plays by playwrights such as Caryl Churchill Zinnie Harris Alistair McDowall and others They show that contemporary drama and performance both aesthetically and thematically reflect and comment on global crises and catastrophes through the lens of anxiety as a feeling that colours the perception of and reaction to these social and political conditions Future Crossings Krzysztof Ziarek,Seamus Deane,2000 A collection of essays exploring the future of literary studies by focusing on the relationship between literary theory philosophy and cultural studies The essays aim to break the boundaries separating philosophy and literature After Rorty G. Elijah Dann,2010-12-16 Discourses of Memory and Refugees Siobhan Brownlie,2020-02-06 This book explores the discourse by and about refugees and asylum seekers in relation to memory with a particular focus on the United Kingdom A series of studies using different analytical approaches is undertaken and together the studies shed light on this overlooked area of research The studies or facets presented in the monograph cover a range of contexts and discursive genres a joint BBC refugee authored television documentary refugees oral histories creative life writing by asylum seekers parliamentarians debates a reworking of canonical texts and sites in a protest campaign and non fiction testimonies and fictional works by later generations of refugee background The monograph introduces facet methodology to memory studies arguing that this approach could encourage interdisciplinary research in the field Cultural Memories of Nonviolent Struggles A. Reading,T. Katriel,2015-06-09 If societies have only memories of war of cruelty of violence then why are we called humankind This book marks a new trajectory in Memory Studies by examining cultural memories of nonviolent struggles from ten countries The book reminds us of the enduring cultural scripts for human agency solidarity resilience and human kindness The Philosophical
