Finding the Plot Roger Standing,2012-03-16 Preaching at its best is truth on fire The real quality of this book is that it has been created from the author s own experience of the local pastorate and is concerned with practical insights and realities I warmly recommend it David Coffey Moderator of the Free Churches and General Secretary of the Baptist Union For some the phrase finding the plot suggests a stroll through a graveyard which is much like their view of preaching But Roger Standing uses the phrase to describe narrative preaching an approach that helps preachers accomplish their essential task to raise the dead Marshall Shelley Vice President Christianity Today International and editor of Leadership This book from a seasoned practitioner and an able thinker will provide the signposts required by many either for transforming their preaching style in mid career or for setting off on the right foot Nigel G Wright Principal of Spurgeon s College London Roger Standing breezily shares his enthusiasm for narrative preaching He combines theory about narrative and its cultural relevance with practical advice and preaching examples A helpful stimulus to any preacher to branch out into narrative preaching Michael Quicke Charles Koller Professor of Preaching and Communications Dawn of the Akashic Age Ervin Laszlo,Kingsley L. Dennis,2013-05-20 A preview of the post mechanistic holistic world in 2020 and 2030 as well as a map of the obstacles we must overcome to get there Reveals how the youngest generation is seeding the shift in consciousness Explains how society will be reorganized into grassroots networks like those revealed by quantum physics and experienced through social media With contributions from futurist John L Petersen ex CEO of Sanyo Tomoya Nonaka media activist Duane Elgin and other visionaries The world is changing The transition from the mechanistic worldview to one that recognizes the interconnectedness of all life is upon us It is the dawning of the Akashic Age The Akashic field that connects the universe is now recognized by cutting edge science What we know about communication energy and consciousness is rapidly evolving in tandem with the new quantum worldview Many adults are consciously evolving to meet the transitional challenges at hand while today s youth have arrived already hard wired with the new consciousness Rising from the ashes of the old systems this Phoenix generation of radical change agents is seeding our evolution and spiritual transformation a process that will continue over the next few decades Authors Ervin Laszlo and Kingsley Dennis look at the chief engine of the coming changes the growing global understanding of nonlocality and the development of practical applications for it They examine how the new values and new consciousness taking hold will reorganize society from top down hierarchies into grassroots networks like those revealed through quantum physics understanding of energy and information waves and experienced daily by millions through social media With contributions from visionary thinkers such as futurist John L Petersen ex CEO of Sanyo Tomoya Nonaka media activist Duane Elgin systems scientist Alexander Laszlo and spiritual economist Charles Eisenstein this book explores the future of education spirituality the media economics food and planetary citizenship as well as the expansion of consciousness necessary to reach that future New Mobilities Regimes in Art and Social Sciences Susanne

Witzgall, Gerlinde Vogl, 2016-04-29 New Mobilities Regimes analyses how global mobilities are changing the world of today and the role of political and economic power Bringing together essays by leading scholars and social scientists including Mimi Sheller and Ben Diken with the work of well known artists and art theorists such as Jordan Crandall Ursula Bieman Gls n Karamustafa and Dan Perjovschi this book is a unique document of the cross disciplinary mobility and power discourse The specific design integrating the text and art elements to create a singular dialogue makes for an exciting intellectual and aesthetic experience Illustrated by a range of studies which examine the regulation and structure of mobility such as the daily routines of teleworkers Ukrainian cleaners in Western Europe the mobility policies of global corporations and the impact of bicycle policies on public space New Mobilities Regimes emphasizes the routes and crossroads of migration flows as well as at the interaction of mobility and new spatial concepts The contributors are concerned with both the positive outcomes and the disappointments of the global mobilizations in modern lives This book is ground breaking in that it calls for the reassessment of the figurative arts in providing independent and insightful knowledge generating research on the nature of mobility and highlights the new appreciation of visual representations in sociology cultural geography and anthropology

Territorial Impact Assessment Eduardo Medeiros, 2020-11-19 This book presents a comprehensive debate and analysis of existing Territorial Impact Assessment TIA methodologies designed under the auspices of the ESPON programme since the mid 2000s This is intended to serve as a TIA handbook for the reader to better understand the main differences advantages and shortcomings of each presented TIA methodology It also serves as a manual for professors and students in the field of policy evaluation and territorial analysis as it presents concrete examples of the implementation of each TIA methodology their formulas and intrinsic evaluation elements The purpose of policy evaluation methodologies is to check the main effects of private and public investments in order to report back to policymakers and citizens on their efficiency and effectiveness Over the past decades both in Europe and worldwide there has been an increasingly awareness of the need to implement reinforce policy evaluation practices at all territorial levels At the same time it has become widely accepted that many policy interventions produce impacts in more than one dimensions of territorial development In this context the use of a holistic and territorial approach for policy impact assessment evaluation has rapidly been adopted by the European Commission as a mainstream policy evaluation procedure

Empire in the Air Chandra D. Bhimull, 2017-12-12 Honorable Mention 2019 Victor Turner Prize in Ethnographic Writing given by the Society for Humanistic Anthropology Honorable Mention 2019 Sharon Stephens Prize given by the American Ethnological Society Examines the role that race played in the inception of the airline industry Empire in the Air is at once a history of aviation and an examination of how air travel changed lives along the transatlantic corridor of the African diaspora Focusing on Britain and its Caribbean colonies Chandra Bhimull reveals how the black West Indies shaped the development of British Airways Bhimull offers a unique analysis of early airline travel illuminating the links among empire aviation and diaspora and in doing so provides insights into how racially oppressed people experienced air travel The emergence of artificial flight revolutionized the movement of people and power and Bhimull makes the connection between airplanes and the other vessels that have helped make and maintain the African diaspora the slave ships of the Middle Passage the tracks of the Underground Railroad and Marcus Garvey's black owned ocean liner As a new technology airline travel retained the racist ideas and practices that were embedded in British imperialism and these ideas shaped every aspect of how commercial aviation developed from how airline routes were set to who could travel easily and who could not The author concludes with a look at airline travel today suggesting that racism is still enmeshed in the banalities of contemporary flight
