them much more intensely thoroughly and honestly would it have been in a better position to help oppressed black people in Africa the United States and oppressed communities everywhere as they have faced the challenges of the last twenty five years In a critical self critical engagement with feminist and especially African feminist theologians in a trans disciplinary conversation Allan Boesak as Black liberation theologian from the Global South offers tentative but intriguing responses to the vital questions facing Black liberation theology today particularly those questions raised by the women

Being There Tony Leon, 2025-05-09 In Being There Tony Leon goes behind the scenes reflecting on how history is made both here and around the world through his unique mixture of anecdote and informed opinion His vantage point ranges from a ringside seat in the recent formation of the government of national unity GNU recounted in detail here for the first time to close encounters with the likes of Harry Oppenheimer Ariel Sharon Yasser Arafat and Boris Johnson and reappraisals of FW de Klerk Nelson Mandela and Mangosuthu Buthelezi Leon writes of the dangers of modern politics from the purgatory of social media to the perils of political fundraising in tough times The challenge of leadership in a world often led by populist grifters or uninspiring time servers runs like a golden thread through the book Written with his customary blend of humour and flair and with an eye to the future and what the present and the past can tell us about it Being There is both important and highly readable
