Fyodor Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment A Casebook:

Fyodor Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment Richard Arthur Peace, 2006 This collection of interpretations of Crime and Punishment reflects both classical and more recent critical opinion The novel is examined from various perspectives and includes two essays by Russian scholars that discuss post Soviet attitudes towards Dostoevsky Dostoevsky's "Crime and Punishment" Deborah A. Martinsen, 2022-02-22 Crime and Punishment A Reader's Guide focuses on narrative strategy psychology and ideology Martinsen demonstrates how Dostoevsky first plunges the reader into Raskolnikov's fevered brain creating sympathy for him and she explains why most readers root for him to get away from the scene of the crime Dostoevsky subsequently provides outsider perspectives on Raskolnikov's thinking effecting a conversion in reader sympathy By examining the multiple justifications for murder Raskolnikov gives as he confesses to Sonya Dostoevsky debunks rationality based theories Finally the question of why Raskolnikov and others including the reader focus on the murder of the pawnbroker and forget the unintended murder of Lizaveta reveals a narrative strategy based on shame and guilt

Dostoevsky and the Epileptic Mode of Being Paul Fung, 2017-07-05 For Fyodor Dostoevsky 1821-81 who lived with epileptic seizures for more than thirty years illness is an ineradicable part of existence Epilepsy in his writings denotes both a set of physical symptoms and a state of survival in which the protagonists incessantly try to articulate theorize or master what is ungraspable in their everyday experience Their attempts to deal with what they cannot control or comprehend results in disappointment or what Dostoevsky called a mystical terror Dostoevsky's heroes are unable fully to understand this state and their existence becomes epileptic in so far as self knowledge and self coincidence are never achieved Fung explores new critical pathways by reexamining five of Dostoevsky's post Siberian novels Drawing on insights from writers including Benjamin Blanchot Freud Lacan and Nietzsche the book takes epilepsy as a trope for discussing the unspeakable moments in the texts and is intended for students and scholars who are interested in the subject of modernity critique of the visual and dialogues between philosophy and literature Paul Fung is Assistant Professor in English at Hang Seng Management College Hong Kong Crime and Punishment Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2017-09-07 One death in exchange for thousands of lives it's simple arithmetic A new translation of Dostoevsky's epic masterpiece Crime and Punishment 1866 The impoverished student Raskolnikov decides to free himself from debt by killing an old moneylender an act he sees as elevating himself above conventional morality Like Napoleon he will assert his will and his crime will be justified by its elimination of vermin for the sake of the greater good But Raskolnikov is torn apart by fear guilt and a growing conscience under the influence of his love for Sonya Meanwhile the police detective Porfiry is on his trail It is a powerfully psychological novel in which the St Petersburg setting Dostoevsky's own circumstances and contemporary social problems all play their part Wages of Evil Anna Schur, 2012 Anna Schur incorporates sources from philosophy criminology psychology and history to argue that Dostoevsky's thinking was shaped not only by his Christian ethics but also by the debates on punishment theory and practice in Criticism introduce readers to the essential criticism on landmark works of literature and film For each volume a distinguished scholar who is an authority on the text has collected the most elucidating and distinctive scholarly essays on that work and added key supporting materials Each volume includes a substantial introduction which considers the key features of the work describes its publication history and contextualizes its cultural import and contemporary reputation while also surveying the major approaches which have informed the works critical history A condensed bibliography offers suggestions for further reading The compact volumes provide a critical survey and suggest provocative ways to engage with their texts They are ideally suited to those interested in developing a deeper understanding of a works history and significance Specific for this book Most of the best criticism on Stowe s landmark novel is fairly recent Until the combined impact of the civil rights and women s movements changed the focus of the academic curriculum Uncle Tom s Cabin seldom appeared in classrooms or as the subject of published scholarship However from the mid 1970 forward the book has been widely written about and taught Today Uncle Toms Cabin is a stable important part of the nineteenth century American literature canon and has generated a rich body of new critical work This casebook collects the best of the new scholarship as well as the most influential older essays Included in this volume are letters by Harriet Beecher Stowe and articles by James Baldwin Leslie Fiedler Jane Tompkins Gillian Brown Robert Stepto and Elizabeth Ammons William Wordsworth's The Prelude Stephen Gill,2006-08-31 William Wordsworth s poem The Prelude is a fascinating work both as an autobiography and as a fragment of historical evidence from the revolutionary and post revolutionary years This volume gathers together 13 essays on The Prelude and is useful as a companion for students and general readers of Wordsworth s greatest poem

Laurence Sterne's Tristram Shandy Thomas Keymer,2006 Thomas Keymer s introduction to this Casebook examines the historical context and controversial reception of Tristram Shandy and connects the essays selected for inclusion to the diverse traditions of Sterne criticism Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre Elsie Browning Michie,2006 Divided into three sections this work explores a range of interpretive strategies applied to readings of Jane Eyre The last section includes essays that frame the historical and social contexts out of which Jane Eyre arose and investigate the critical reception and afterlife of the text publisher Ezra Pound's Cantos Peter Makin,2006 Publisher description Dostoevsky's Secrets Carol Apollonio Flath,2009-01-14 When Fyodor Dostoevsky proclaims that he is a realist in a higher sense it is because the facts are irrelevant to his truth And it is in this spirit that Apollonio approaches Dostoevsky s work reading through the facts the text of his canonical novels for the deeper truth that they distort mask and ultimately disclose This sort of reading against the grain is Apollonio suggests precisely what these works with their emphasis on the hidden and the private and their narrative reliance on secrecy and slander demand In each work Apollonio focuses on one character or theme caught in the compromising self serving or distorting narrative lens Who she asks really exploits whom in Poor Folk Does White Nights ever escape the dream state What is actually lost and what is won in The Gambler Is Svidrigailov of such ill repute in Crime and Punishment in fact an exemplar of generosity and truth Who in Demons is truly demonic Here we see how Dostoevsky has crafted his novels to help us see these distorting filters and develop the critical skills to resist their anaesthetic effect Apollonio s readings show how Dostoevsky s paradoxes counter and usurp our comfortable assumptions about the way the world is and offer access to a deeper immanent essence His works gain power when we read beyond the primitive logic of external appearances and recognize the deeper life of the text

The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and the City Jeremy Tambling,2017-02-17 This book is about the impact of literature upon cities world wide and cities upon literature It examines why the city matters so much to contemporary critical theory and why it has inspired so many forms of writing which have attempted to deal with its challenges to think about it and to represent it Gathering together 40 contributors who look at different modes of writing and film making in throughout the world this handbook asks how the modern city has engendered so much theoretical consideration and looks at cities and their literature from China to Peru from New York to Paris from London to Kinshasa It looks at some of the ways in which modern cities whether capitals shanty towns industrial or rust belt have forced themselves on people s ways of thinking and writing

Guilt Herant Katchadourian,2011-07-06 This is the first study of guilt from a wide variety of perspectives psychology psychiatry psychoanalysis evolutionary psychology anthropology six major religions four key moral philosophers and the law Katchadourian explores the ways in which guilt functions within individual lives and intimate relationships looking at behaviors that typically induce guilt in both historical and modern contexts He examines how the capacity for moral judgments develops within individuals and through evolutionary processes He then turns to the socio cultural aspects of guilt and addresses society s attempts to come to terms with guilt as culpability through the legal process This personal work draws from and integrates material from extensive primary and secondary literature Through the extensive use of literary and personal accounts it provides an intimate picture of what it is like to experience this universal emotion Written in clear and engaging prose with a touch of humor Guilt should appeal to a wide audience

Aspects of Dostoevskii ,2012-01-01 Perhaps more than any other nineteenth century Russian writer Dostoevskii s continuing popularity rests on his contemporary relevance The prophetic streak in his creativity gives him the same lasting appeal as dystopian novelists such as Zamiatin and Orwell whom he influenced and whose ethical concerns he anticipated Religious themes are prominent in his work too and though he was a believer his interest seems to lie in the tension between faith and unbelief which was felt as keenly in the Russia of his time as in our own The nature of Dostoevskii s art also continues to be debated The older tendency to disparage his literary method has given way to a recognition of the originality of his techniques without which his ideological concerns would not have emerged with such thought provoking clarity The chapters which comprise this volume address these issues in a range of Dostoevskii s works from shorter classics such as House of the Dead and Notes from Underground to great novels such as Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov This work will be of use to scholars and students of Dostoevskii at all levels as well as to those with an interest in nineteenth century literature more generally Turgenev and Russian Culture Joe Andrew, Derek Offord, Robert Reid, 2008 The present volume has as its central aim a reassessment of the works of Ivan Turgenev for the twenty first century Against the background of a decline in interest in nineteenth century literature the articles gathered here seek to argue that the period in general and his work in particular still have much to offer the modern sensibility The volume also offers a great variety of approaches Some of the contributors tackle major works by Turgenev including Rudin and Smoke while others address key themes that run through all his creative work Yet others address his influence as well as his broader relationship with Russian and other cultures A final group of articles examines other key figures in Russian literary culture including Belinskii Herzen and Tolstoi The work will therefore be of interest to students postgraduates and specialists in the field of Russian literary culture At the same time they will stand as a tribute to the life and work of Professor Richard Peace a long standing specialist in nineteenth century Russian literature in whose honour the volume has been compiled
