G W Pabst:

Ministry of Illusion Eric Rentschler, 1996-10 Overview of Nazi cinema The Films of G.W. Pabst Eric Rentschler, 1990
GW Pabst entered film history as a luminary of Weimar cinema an astute observer of social struggle and psychic process the espouser of a progressive and engaged film art He gained international renown as the director of The joyless street Pandora's Box Westfront 1918 and Kamaradschaft After 1933 the once revered auteur would become a voice incessantly modified and modulated by socio political forces more sovereign than his best intentions experiencing exile emigration a sojourn in Hollywood a fateful return to Germany and an unsuccessful postwar attempt to regain a once considerable reputation This collection of essays presents the first truly comprehensive image of a problematic filmmaker whose life and oeuvre compellingly reflect both the turbulent character of recent German history as well as the fate of artistic producers in the transcultural machinery of the modern world Selling Sex on Screen Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Catriona McAvoy, 2015-07-16
Whether in mainstream or independent films depictions of female prostitution and promiscuity are complicated by their intersection with male fantasies In such films issues of exploitation fidelity and profitability are often introduced into the narrative where sex and power become commodities traded between men and women In Selling Sex on Screen From Weimar Cinema to Zombie Porn Karen A Ritzenhoff and Catriona McAvoy have assembled essays that explore the representation of women and sexual transactions in film and television Included in these discussions are the films Breakfast at Tiffany's Eyes Wide Shut L A Confidential Pandora's Box and Shame and such programs as Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Gigolos By exploring the themes of class differences and female economic independence the chapters go beyond textual analysis and consider politics censorship social trends laws race and technology as well as sexual and gender stereotypes By exploring this complex subject Selling Sex on Screen offers a spectrum of representations of desire and sexuality through the moving image This volume will be of interest not only to students and scholars of film but also researchers in gender studies women's studies criminology sociology film studies adaptation studies and popular culture G. W. Pabst Lee Atwell, 1977
Biography of G W Pabst an Austrian film director and screenwriter He started as an actor and theater director before becoming one of the most influential German language filmmakers during the Weimar Republic The ^Apostwar Antisemite Lisa Silverman, 2025-08-15
In the wake of the Holocaust Austrians Germans and others often turned to a figural Antisemite to come to terms with their altered political economic and cultural circumstances and to shape new national and moral self understandings This spectral figure of the Antisemite came into being after Nazi atrocities made explicit expressions of antisemitism socially taboo in Europe and the United States As The Postwar Antisemite explains the damaging effects of the figural Antisemite set in motion in Central Europe immediately after the Second World War spread far beyond Europe's borders and continue to this day Cinematography in the Weimar Republic Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2016-08-15
In film history director cinematographer collaborations were on a labor spectrum with the model of the contracted camera operator in the silent era and that of the cinematographer in the sound era But in Weimar era German filmmaking 1919-33 a short period of intense artistic activity and political and economic instability these models existed side by side due to the emergence of camera operators as independent visual artists and collaborators with directors Berlin in the 1920s was the chief site of the interdisciplinary avant garde of the Modernist movement in the visual literary architectural design typographical sartorial and performance arts in Europe The Weimar Revolution that arose in the aftermath of the November 1918 Armistice and that established the Weimar Republic informed and agitated all of the art movements such as Expressionism Dada the Bauhaus Minimalism Objectivism Verism and Neue Sachlichkeit New Objectivity Among the avant garde forms of these new stylistically and culturally negotiated arts the cinema was foremost and since its inception had been a radical experimental practice in new visual technologies that proved instrumental in changing how human beings perceived movement structure perspective light exposure temporal duration continuity spatial orientation human postural facial vocal and gestural displays and their own spectatorship as well as conventions of storytelling like narrative setting theme character and structure Whereas most of the arts mobilized into schools movements institutions and other structures cinema a collaborative art tended to organize around its ensembles of practitioners Historically the silent film era 1895-1927 is associated with auteurs the precursors of François Truffaut and other filmmakers in the 1960s actuality filmmakers and pioneers like R.W. Paul and Fred and Joe Evans in England Auguste and Louis Lumière and Georges Méliès in France and Charles Chaplin and Buster Keaton in America who by managing all the compositional executional and editorial facets of film production scripting directing acting photographing set costume and lighting design editing and marketing imposed their personal vision or authorship on the film The dichotomy of the auteur and the production ensemble established a production hierarchy in most filmmaking In formative German silent film however this hierarchy was less rank or class driven because collaborative partnerships took precedence over single authorship Whereas in silent film production in most countries the terms filmmaker and director were synonymous in German silent film the plural term Filmmacherin connoted both directors and cinematographers along with the rest of the filmmaking crew Thus German silent filmmakers principle contribution to the new medium and art of film was less the representational iconographies of Expressionist New Objective and Naturalist styles than the executional practice of co authorship and co production in distinctive cinematographer director partnerships such as those of cinematographer Theodor Sparkuhl and director Ernst Lubitsch Fritz Arno Wagner with F.W. Murnau Fritz Lang and G.W. Pabst Rudolf Mat with Carl Theodor Dreyer Guido Seeber with Lang and Pabst and Carl Hoffmann with Lang and Murnau

Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates

The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun, 2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemmingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology
