Twayne's World Authors Series, 1966      Certain Difficulty of Being Anthony George Purdy, 1990 A Certain Difficulty of Being provides an English speaking audience with an account of some of the most interesting narrative problems which mark the development of the Quebec novel Anthony Purdy uses the tools of contemporary narratology to go beyond the more formal studies of the sixties and seventies Why he asks are the narrators of the novels he studies telling the stories they tell and why do they experience such difficulty in doing so      Books for College Libraries: Language and literature, 1988

Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume 2 a revision of Part IV of the original edition covers the period from about 1920 to 1960 The contributors to this volume are Desmond Pacey William Kilbourn Henry B Mayo Millar MacLure John Webster Grant Thomas A Goudge Elizabeth Waterston Brandon Conron Jay Macpherson Sheila A Egoff Michael Tait Hugo McPherson Munro Beattie and Northrop Frye      Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company, 1982      The Crafting of Chaos Hildegard Kuester, 2022-06-08 In this study of the Canadian novelist Margaret Laurence recent narratological models provide the theoretical framework for a textual analysis that aims at complementing previous thematic critiques The chief focus is on The Stone Angel and The Diviners which the conclusion then presents in the context of the other novels in Laurence's Manawaka cycle Consideration of the published works is rounded off with genetic comparison of the novelist's typescript drafts and an evaluation of the manuscript notes kept in the archives of McMaster and York Universities The central structural principle of The Stone Angel is its dovetailing of past and present scenes Temporal arrangement reflecting the frequency and duration of Hagar's memories reveals the hold of memory over the central character and her attempts to suppress her fear of mortality Hagar as narrator manipulates character presentation and description to her own advantage In a basically oppositional structure her need for control is reflected in the neat ordering of the narrative The verbal texture of the novel serves to establish a value system that insists on the superiority of imported culture over Western Canadian forms The Diviners shares a number of narrative similarities with The Stone Angel but the latter's formal rigidity has yielded by the time Laurence writes her last novel to the concept of multiplicity characters time planes perspectives and narrative voices including metafictional commentaries Textual coherence is secured via narrative strategies including typography generational paradigms repetition parallelism intertextuality and tropological patterning that render the novel readable and
