

The Sixfold Purpose Of Gabriel's Visit To Daniel

☞ . . . but so amazed at the, our little teenagers this morning, the little, you know, little fefe and fifi, the little, the, you know, sixteens. And they come in the church, you know, about, little girls, about that age, they want to look pretty, you know, them, you know, hair is all curled up, on top of their head; I noticed them, as I was preaching, just kept wilting down, wilting down, and after a while, they was blowing it back out of their face, the curls all straight.

<sup>2</sup> Sister Downing's little girl, and—and I noticed her. And little—little—little . . . Brother Collins' little . . . What's her name? Little . . . [A brother says, "Betty."—Ed.] Betty, little Betty. I kind of just laughed a little bit, to myself. But I seen all the pretty, you know, all fixed up, and then directly it was . . .

<sup>3</sup> Well, bless your hearts, honey, you're pretty, to me, anyhow. That's right. Pretty is, is a pretty spirit that will come and set in meetings like that, and listen to the Gospel. That's what makes a girl pretty. And I think any real boy, that's worth marrying, thinks the same thing. [Brother Neville says, "Amen."—Ed.] Thank you, sir. That's good. Somebody agreed with me. That, that's right. All right. I believe that that is the Truth.

<sup>4</sup> Now isn't that strange? I turned right straight to Daniel 9 when I opened my Bible. Now, I usually tell everybody, don't take their coat off, that's got a hole in their shirt, so I hope mine hasn't. But—but I've seen the time where I couldn't take it off, with a hole in the shirt, sure enough. And I guess this one hasn't.

<sup>5</sup> Now, oh, for myself, we . . . and I believe for the audience, we appreciate the Presence of the Holy Spirit this morning.

And we appreciate the fellowship and presence of each other. "How sweet, how good, how pleasant, for brethren to dwell together in unity. It's like the precious anointing oil that run down the Aaron's beard, all the way to the hems of his skirt."

<sup>6</sup> I went over to eat today, over at the Blue Boar, and who did I get into over there but Brother Bill here, and Sister Dauch setting there, just—just eating away some of the best-looking, fried chicken I ever seen, and just having a wonderful time, sweating right out of it, you know. Went on upstairs and met a big portion of the church up there, and they wanted to even pay for my dinner. Now, that was really nice, I appreciate that.

from an interest in the epistemological and aesthetic representation of the world in scientific theories over a concern with the ethical dimension of representations to an exploration of self representation and identity What remains constant throughout these different perspectives is the disruption of representations by brief but haunting glimpses of otherness In tracing these different visions of alterity in Banville s solipsistic literary world this study offers a better understanding of his insistent and thought provoking exploration of what it means to be human
