The Liturgy of the Gospel Wolfgang Vondey, 2025-09-12

Vondey argues that theological hermeneutics in Pentecostal perspective is the interpretation of the world explicitly and specifically informed by the liturgy of the gospel This book identifies the corresponding hermeneutical questions that have dominated the formation of a liturgical Pentecostal horizon of interpretation since the twentieth century Pentecostals are acutely aware that the claim of their interpretive position shows not only a fusion of horizons but also a rejection of the dominant descriptive mechanisms How this tension in the history of

Pentecostal theology is resolved and contributes to the emergence of Pentecostalism as a hermeneutical tradition is the subject of three critical inquiries 1 the question of truth in the Pentecostal tradition 2 the extension of the question of truth to hermeneutical experience and 3 the ontological shift of Pentecostal hermeneutics Vondey identifies how Pentecostal hermeneutics emerged not only thematically and historically but experientially and subjectively through the themes of the full gospel This book shows that rather than by the dominance of language the dynamic hermeneutical positioning in the narrative of this gospel originated and continues to be shaped liturgically

Living in the Margins Terry A. Veling, 2002-11-12 A gifted theologian sheds light on the meaning and value of intentional faith communities in the margins of parish life

The Nature of Political Theory Andrew Vincent, 2004-03-25 In his controversial new book Andrew Vincent sets out to analyse and challenge the established nostrums of contemporary political theory The nature of Political Theory offers three major contributions to current scholarship It offers first a comprehensive synoptic and comparative analysis of the major conceptions of political theory predominantly during the twentieth century This analysis incorporates systematic critiques of both Anglo American and continental contributions The nature of theory is seen as intrinsically pluralistic and internally divided Secondly the idea of foundationalism is employed in the book to bring some coherence to this internally complex and fragmented practice The book consequently focuses on the various foundational concerns embedded within conceptions of political theory Thirdly the book argues for an adjustment to the way we think about the discipline Political theory is reconceived as a theoretically based indeterminate subject which should be more attuned to practice and history Andrew Vincent makes a case for a more ecumenical and tolerant approach to the discipline suggesting that there are different but equally legitimate answers to the question what is political theory Acceptance of this view would involve a supplementation of the standard substantive approaches to contemporary political theory The Nature of Political Theory offers a unique and idiosyncratic perspective on our current understanding of political theory making it an indispensable resource for all scholars and students of the discipline

Homo Temporalis Nitzan Itzhak Lebovic, 2025-01-15 Homo Temporalis focuses on the importance of temporal concepts for four German Jewish thinkers who profoundly shaped twentieth century intellectual history Martin Buber Walter Benjamin Hannah Arendt and Paul Celan By analyzing the concept of time Nitzan Lebovic explores Buber's stress on the temporality of the dialogue between I and Thou Benjamin's now time and dialectics in standstill Arendt's understanding of democracy as natality or a permanent revolution and the breathturn that informs Celan's poetry Framing the reception of German Jewish thinking in the second half of the twentieth century as a parallel story to the rise of the modern humanities Homo Temporalis also highlights how these foundational temporal concepts illuminate the causes of the present crisis in the humanities and its disciplinary limitations in the age of biopolitics and the Anthropocene

Confucian Questions to Augustine JunSoo Park, 2020-05-11 In Confucian Questions to Augustine Park compares the works of Confucius and Mencius with those of Saint Augustine His purpose in so doing is to show Confucian Augustinianism as a new theological perspective on Confucian Christian ethics and Augustinianism by discovering analogies and differences in their respective understandings of the formation of moral self particularly the acquisition of virtue and how they believe this leads to happiness Using the method of inter textual reasoning and assuming continuity between Augustine s early and later works he compares Confucius and Mencius s xue si li and yue with Augustine s moral learning contemplation sacrament and music respectively Confucian Augustinianism shows how to enjoy God follow Jesus and live in the Holy Spirit Yale Journal of Law & the Humanities ,1999 Choice ,1993 Bookforum ,2003
