

This is the story of the moth that gets burned because of its failure to heed the mother's advice. The only difference is that the writer sees it as a symbol of love of a man paying around the fire until he is finally caught by the flames.

Children do not rationalize about infidelity. For them, true love must be sincere, loyal, sympathetic and understanding.

54. MARRIAGE
(I Passed By)

Shyest of children
You are in a marriage
Separated yet loving
Remember a childhood.

From loving, from loving
Child as does not forget-remember
Childhood as it will
Forever grows up and.

Yesterday morning
You just saw me pass by,
You only let me pass without greeting me,
Without even acknowledging my passing by.
Just go on, just go on, sister,
With your shady treatment—
Tomorrow, or on some future day,
You will realize you need me.

The song is addressed to a loved one as he laments the cold indifference of his beloved. He is deeply hurt when his beloved passes by and ignores him.

He harbors bitterness in his heart; however, he is optimistic that the beloved will need him in the future and he looks forward to this hope for reconciliation.

55. MARRIED IS TODAY BUT MARRIAGE
(Like a Human Being in This World)

Married is today like a human
Separated like a human
