Gadsden, Alabama ,1999-12-01 The 1930s were an unparalleled period in American history Never before or since and probably never again has the gamut of human emotions swung so far and so fast On October 29 1929 the stock market crashed and soon after the nation of plenty was in turmoil and fast becoming a wasteland No sacred institution was left untouched banks failed factories shut down stores closed and almost every business seemed paralyzed with economic stagnation A generation raised in these conditions could not help but be changed by such foreboding circumstances It was a period in which new trends of thought emerged in economic matters social activity and moral conduct all leaving the pockmark of progress upon the nation s young This book presents a revealing portrait of one man s life during the Depression His particular story is derived from a specific location in the state of Alabama however it is an intimately familiar tale to anyone who survived that horrible economic period and to younger generations who have allowed the stories to endure in their family lore

Hammer and Hoe Robin D. G. Kelley, 2015-08-03 A groundbreaking contribution to the history of the long Civil Rights movement Hammer and Hoe tells the story of how during the 1930s and 40s Communists took on Alabama's repressive racist police state to fight for economic justice civil and political rights and racial equality The Alabama Communist Party was made up of working people without a Euro American radical political tradition devoutly religious and semiliterate black laborers and sharecroppers and a handful of whites including unemployed industrial workers housewives youth and renegade liberals In this book Robin D G Kelley reveals how the experiences and identities of these people from Alabama's farms factories mines kitchens and city streets shaped the Party's tactics and unique political culture The result was a remarkably resilient movement forged in a racist world that had little tolerance for radicals After discussing the book's origins and impact in a new preface written for this twenty fifth anniversary edition Kelley reflects on what a militantly antiracist radical movement in the heart of Dixie might teach contemporary social movements confronting rampant inequality police violence mass incarceration and neoliberalism

The Generation That Saved America Bettye B. Burkhalter, 2010-12-10 History Romance Destiny The Third Novel in the Trilogy Dr John Burel's great grandson John Harrison was a toddler when his family pioneered from South Carolina to Mississippi As a youngster he proudly helped his family bellwether the Civil War and rebirth of the New South By the early 1900s he was a prosperous farmer and landowner Time passed quickly and too soon he was an old man Join Grandpa and feel the biting north wind as he shuffled onto the front porch cupped his hands around his mouth and shouted It's hog killing day Watch the bustling families rush toward the big house to slaughter enough hogs to carry them through the winter Summer finally arrived and brought old time gospel singing and preaching to their country church on the hill Mama rose early on Sunday morning and filled her basket with fried chicken biscuits baked sweet potatoes and fried apple pies After preaching there was going to be another dinner on the ground Everyone was excited Without a doubt those were the good years But all that changed Walk down the dismal road with the Burrell family as they helplessly watched the reckless Roaring Twenties and Great Depression bring a flourishing economy and their comfortable lifestyle to a grinding halt Feel Grandpa s pain and humiliation when the bank called in his Deed of Trust and he was forced to sell his last 640 acre farm and home for a few dollars Sit for awhile and listen to his grandson Cecil Allen Burrell The Man Himself as his thought provoking stories detail how they all survived those disastrous years With their eyes on the future John Harrison s children and grandchildren navigated their way back into prosperity and eventually reclaimed their part of the American dream the same dream brought to America by their Great3 Grandfather Dr Jean Baptiste Elzear Burel in 1778 The Hungry Years
