Gael Force A Century Of Football At Queens:

Gael Force Mervin Daub, 1996 Football at Queen's University has one of the richest and certainly one of the longest histories of any sport in Canada. The Golden Gaels have been a presence in Canadian football at both the amateur and professional level since 1882. Gael Force traces this history chronicling the team's ups and downs and integrating them within the history of the university, the country, and the sport in general. Gael Force, Second Edition Mervin Daub, 2018-02-02 Football at Queen's University has one of the richest and longest histories of any sport in Canada. The Golden Gaels have been a presence in Canadian football at both the amateur and professional levels since 1882. Gael Force traces this history chronicling the team's ups and downs and integrating them within the history of the university, the country, and the sport in general. Providing a wealth of interesting facts and engaging anecdotes as well as profiles and photographs of the coaches, captains, and players, Mervin Daub takes the reader through more than a century of Queen's football. Drawing from a wealth of sources, Daub recounts the team's key milestones, including their first Dominion championship in 1893 with Curtis and his boys, three consecutive Grey Cup wins in the 1920s, the 1934-35 victory of the Fearless Fourteen, the 1955 season when Gus Braccia, Ronnie Stewart, Gary Schreider, Lou Bruce, Al Kocman, Jocko Thompson, and the rest of that band of merry men brought Queen's back into the limelight, the golden years of the 1960s, and the 1978 and 1992 Vanier Cup championship seasons. Adding twenty more years of football history since Gael Force was first published in 1996, this new edition includes the 2016 season played at the revitalized Richardson Stadium. It is both a tribute to a long-standing football legacy at Queen's and an important historical and sociological study of college sport in Canada. Gael Force Mervin Daub, Bruce Buchan, 1996-08-22 Gael Force provides a wealth of interesting facts and engaging anecdotes as well as profiles and photographs of the coaches, captains, and players. Mervin Daub takes the reader through a century of Queen's football from the first Dominion championship in 1893 with Curtis and his boys through three consecutive Grey Cup wins in the 1920s, the 1934-35 victory of the Fearless Fourteen, the 1955 season when Gus Braccia, Ronnie Stewart, Gary Schreider, Lou Bruce, Al Kocman, Jocko Thompson, and the rest of that band of merry men brought Queen's back into the limelight, the golden years of the 1960s to the 1978 and 1992 Vanier Cup championship seasons. Gael Force is a tribute to the long-standing football legacy at Queen's and an important historical and sociological study of college sport in Canada. Queen's University, Volume III, 1961-2004 Duncan McDowall, 2016-04-01 Founded in 1841 by a royal charter, Queen's University evolved into a national institution steeped in tradition and an abiding sense of public service. Propelled initially by its Presbyterian instincts and an attachment to Gaelic culture, Queen's has prospered and adapted over the years to match Canada's ever-changing dynamics. In this third volume of Queen's University's official history, Duncan McDowall demonstrates that the late twentieth century was a contest between expediency and tradition, waged through crisis and careful evolution. Testing Tradition calibrates the durability of Queen's vaunted traditions in the face of shifts in the broader Canadian society. During this time of massive postsecondary expansion Queen's grew sevenfold from a small collegial campus of 3 100 students to a sprawling cosmopolitan place of more than 20 000 students from over 120 countries engaged in undergraduate graduate and professional programs Measuring Queen's University's responses to concerns over social diversity human rights and gender equity through the eyes of its trustees administrators students faculty and the Kingston community this volume pays particular attention to the experiences of women and visible minorities at the university Copiously illustrated with photographs of important people events and aspects of campus life this volume shows how Queen's in having its traditions tested has worked to retain the best of its past while accepting the inevitability of change Getting Down to Business Mervin Daub, Bruce Buchan, 1999 The year 1919 saw the death of former Prime Minister Laurier the birth of future Prime Minister Trudeau and at Queen's University in Kingston Ontario the introduction of Canada's first degree based program in business the Bachelor of Commerce by economist and later architect of Canada's public service O D Skelton International Sport Richard William Cox, 2004 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new Capitalizing Knowledge Barbara Austin, 2000-07-08 Interpreting the path of the future is made easier by understanding the past In light of this adage Capitalizing Knowledge examines the history of Canadian business faculties in their search for professional legitimacy As the title suggests this volume is an overview of the development of business schools in Canadian universities Business faculties have different characteristics some are noted for generating management research while others generate interaction with the business community Some programs are famous for their MBA graduates others for their undergraduate students This collection of essays describes the critical events that have defined the character of these faculties and societies of business education in Canada over the course of the twentieth century Eight universities are profiled including Queen's York and the University of Toronto In addition the development of the Administrative Sciences Association of Canada ASAC is traced The first book of its kind Capitalizing Knowledge contains original research by some of the leading Canadian business school academics who describe how these programs have evolved The contributors all note the particular importance of organization culture and values in moulding the actions of faculty members They also highlight the difficulties associated with establishing a body of knowledge in business management and transforming that knowledge to suit ever changing business organizations and industry at large O.D. Skelton Norman Hillmer, 2015-01-01 When O D Skelton became Prime Minister Mackenzie King's foreign policy advisor in 1923 he was already a celebrated critic of the status quo in international and domestic affairs a loyal Liberal Party man and a fervent nationalist who believed Canada needed to steer a path independent of Britain Two years later he became the permanent head of Canada's Department of External Affairs Between then and his tragic death in 1941 Skelton created Canada's professional diplomatic service staffing it with sharp young men such as Lester B Pearson Skelton's importance in Ottawa was unparalleled and his role in shaping Canada's world was formative and crucial Using research from archives across Canada and around the world Norman Hillmer presents Skelton not only as a towering intellectual force but as deeply human deceptively quiet complex and driven by an outsize ambition for himself and for his country O D Skelton is the definitive biography of the most influential public servant in Canada's history written by one of the most prolific Canadian historians of international affairs and the editor of Skelton's voluminous papers
