Gallows View Peter Robinson, 2013-11-19 The first devilishly good The New York Times Book Review book in the thrilling bestselling crime series featuring British inspector Alan Banks as he seeks to catch a Jack the Ripper like killer who is prowling the countryside Chief Inspector Alan Banks moved away from London to the quaint village of Eastvale to find some peace but trouble can be found in a village as well as in the city Soon Banks must contend with a Peeping Tom a group of thieving young thugs and the brutal murder of an elderly woman in her home A growing friendship with psychologist Jenny Fuller and tension with wife Sandra complicate matters particularly when Jenny and Banks's family are threatened

Ultimately as the story builds to a surprising and terrifying climax Banks must make some hard decisions Gallows View: DCI Banks 1 Peter Robinson, 2018-06-26 Chief Inspector Alan Banks a big city detective newly arrived in the Yorkshire town of Eastvale is suddenly confronted with a minor crime wave A Peeping Tom is alarming his victims and arousing Eastvale's strident feminists Then a pair of young toughs take to harassing and robbing the elderly When an old woman is murdered in her home Banks must determine if yet a third criminal a killer has surfaced and if any or all of these events are related

The Place It Was Done Šárka Bubíková, Olga Roebuck, 2023-03-03 Locations play an important role in every story but in British and American contemporary crime fiction they are often inextricable from the narrative This work examines the city the countryside and the wilderness as places ripe with literary significance and symbolism Using works by authors like Robert Galbraith Ian Rankin Denise Mina Chris Brookmyre John Knox Peter Robinson Linda Barnes Dana Stabenow Nevada Barr Les Roberts Philip R Craig and others this work offers a fresh assessment of how place and space are employed in contemporary crime fiction Highlighted are similarities and differences among the authors' approaches to setting and how they relate to the history of crime fiction and to the general literary representation of place Going beyond mere literary geography the book engages the sociocultural dimensions of the communities affected by crime Chapters also analyze the reader's perception recognition and appreciation of place and community Some Rough Materials for a History of the
