Galway In Old Photographs:

Galway in Old Photographs Peadar O'Dowd, 2003-01-01 The principal city of Connacht was originally a Norman settlement and has throughout all its history been the principal commercial centre in the west of Ireland In medieval times it maintained a vigorous trade with the Iberian Peninsula but by the late nineteenth century its great days seemed to be behind it However the period covered by this book has been one of consolidation and renewal a renewal that has been particularly impressive in the last forty years The city now has one of the most thriving universities in the country is a centre of research and excellence in marine science and aquaculture and is the key centre for cultural and artistic achievement in the west of Ireland Peadar O Dowd has assembled a remarkably wide selection of images all of them drawn from private sources and most of them never seen before in print

Ennis in Old Photographs Sean Spellissy, 2004 This wonderful collection of photographs is a chronicle of social life in Ennis from 1890s to the present The main emphasis is on the period 1940 to 1980 The book recalls the town s commercial sporting and artistic life with nostalgia and affection the time we enter the photographic era it was still feeling the effects of post Famine decline Many of the early photographs in this book show a time in which there was little wealth and little material opportunity Its revival began with the development of Shannon Airport nearby in the 1930s which led in turn to the development of tourism in County Clare especially in the post war years Since the 1960s Ennis has been a thriving county town and in 1997 became the first Information Age Town in Ireland them drawn from private sources and most of them never seen before in print
