Gamblers Tale:

Gambling Mike Atherton, 2007-09-06 Gambling is a fascinating account of gambling through history from Greek mythology and the ancient role of lots dice and cards to the high profile cricket and football match throwing and super casinos of today Mike Atherton explores this controversial and captivating phenomenon and the way that many present day sports provide the most popular focus for gambling why so many of today's sportsmen become fervent gamblers and how in some cases this has led to corruption addiction and ruined reputations With recent high profile incidents involving the likes of Mohammad Amir and Joey Barton gambling in sport is a topic that remains at the top of the sporting agenda Scandalous cases such as the Cronje and Grobbelar incidents are analysed in detail as well as an investigation into why such a high proportion of the world's population have always sought out risk and how this trend has encompassed all social classes and cultures

The Culture of Sentiment Shirley Samuels, 1992 In this important new collection leading scholars in nineteenth century American culture re-examine the vexed subject of sentimentality These essays draw upon a range of interdisciplinary approaches to situate sentimentality in terms of women's culture and issues of race before and after the Civil War Moving beyond the canonical debates about sentimentality the collection makes visible the particular racial and gendered forms that define the aesthetics and politics of the American culture of sentiment The contributors use evidence from American cultural history American studies and literary criticism to examine the process by which nineteenth century American culture was both produced and contested They present incisive readings of scenes like an antebellum murder trial the erotic attention audiences paid to the statues of Hiram Powers and the engravings of Godey's Ladies Book In addition they use the writings of Harriet Jacobs Mark Twain James Fenimore Cooper Pauline Hopkins W E B DuBois and Harriet Beecher Stowe to question the political fables immanent in this literature More generally they portray nineteenth century American sentimentality as a national project a project about imagining the nation's bodies and the national body With essays by Lauren Berlant Ann Fabian Susan Gillman Karen Halttunen Carolyn L Karcher Joy Kasson Amy Schragger Lang Isabelle Lehuu Harryette Mullen Dana Nelson Lora Romero Shirley Samuels Karen Sanchez Eppler Lynn Wardley and Laura Wexler The Culture of Sentiment significantly reorients the field of nineteenth century American literature art culture and history It will be of keen interest to those concerned with women's studies American studies cultural studies African American studies and American history and literature
