spectators The Games People Play addresses issues often considered problematic in theological discussions of sport such as gender race consumerism and the role of the modern media as well as problems associated with excessive competition and performance enhancing substances As Ellis explains Sporting journalists often use religious language in covering sports events Salvation features in many a headline and talk of moments of redemption is not uncommon Perhaps somewhere beyond the cliched hyperbole there is some theological truth in all this after all Games People Play Eric Berne,1980-08-12
