Michael Bond

Illustrated by R. W. Alley

Paddington

A detailed illustration of Paddington Bear, the character from the children's books. He is shown from the chest up, wearing his signature red beret and a blue jacket. He has a friendly expression with a slight smile and is looking towards the viewer. The background is a solid, vibrant red, which makes the character stand out. The illustration style is soft and painterly, typical of the original book covers.

Opening Doors for Preschool Children and Their Parents Association for Library Service to Children. Preschool Services and Parent Education Committee,1981 Pathways to Excessive Gambling Charlotte Fabiansson,2016-05-13 Pathways to Excessive Gambling draws upon extensive empirical research amongst young people and problem gamblers in Australia comparing it with situations in other territories to shed light on social recreational gambling and the ways in which this can lead to excessive gambling It highlights the relationship between the local community sports clubs governments social recreation economy and regulation of gambling venues identifying the social indicators that typify situations which commonly lead to excessive gambling By developing a society based perspective this volume recognizes problem gambling as an issue for the whole society rather than just the individual focusing on the availability of gambling and identifying its capacity as a construct to encourage or restrict the behaviour of the individual As such this book will be of significance to social scientists with interests in gambling young people social problems and the sociology of leisure and culture The Texaco Star ,1922
