Gao Xingjian And Transcultural Chinese Theater:

Gao Xingjian and Transcultural Chinese Theater Sy Ren Quah, 2004-04-30 A reclusive painter living in exile in Paris Gao Xingjian found himself instantly famous when he became the first Chinese language writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature 2000 The author of the novel Soul Mountain Gao is best known in his native country not as a visual artist or novelist but as a playwright and theater director This important yet rarely studied figure is the focus of Sy Ren Ouah s rich account appraising his contributions to contemporary Chinese and World Theater over the past two decades A playwright himself Quah provides an in depth analysis of the literary dramatic intellectual and technical aspects of Gao s plays and theatrical concepts treating Gao s theater not only as an art form but with Gao himself as a significant cultural phenomenon The Bus Stop Wild Man and other early works are examined in the context of 1980s China Influenced by Stanislavsky Brecht and Beckett as well as traditional Chinese theater arts and philosophies Gao refused to conform to the dominant realist conventions of the time and made a conscious effort to renovate Chinese theater The young playwright sought to create a Modern Eastern Theater that was neither a vague generalization nor a nationalistic declaration but a challenge to orthodox ideologies After fleeing China Gao was free to experiment openly with theatrical forms Quah examines his post exile plays in a context of performance theory and philosophical concerns such as the real versus the unreal and the Self versus the Other The image conveyed of Gao is not of an activist but of an intellectual committed to maintaining his artistic independence who continues to voice his opinion on political matters Transcultural Aesthetics in the Plays of Gao Xingjian T. Coulter, 2014-05-02 Gao Xingjian has been lauded for his inventive use of Chinese culture in his paintings plays and cinema however he denies that his current work participates in any notion of Chinese This book traces the development of these forms and how the relate and interact in the French language plays of the Nobel Laureate Gao Xinaiian's Post-Exile Plays Mary Mazzilli, 2015-11-19 Awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2000 Gao Xingjian is the first Chinese writer to be so lauded for his prose and plays Since relocating to France in 1987 in a voluntary exile from China he has assembled a body of dramatic work that has best been understood neither as expressly Chinese nor French but as transnational In this comprehensive study of his post exile plays Mary Mazzilli explores Gao s plays as examples of postdramatic transnationalism a transnational artistic and theatrical trend that is fluid flexible and encompasses a variety of styles and influences As such this innovative interdisciplinary investigation offers fresh insights into contemporary theatre Whereas other publications have considered Gao s work as a cultural and artistic phenomenon Gao Xingjian s Post Exile Plays Transnationalism and Postdramatic Theatre is the first study to relate his plays to postdramatic theatre and to provide close textual and dramatic analysis that will help readers to better understand his complex work and also to see it in the context of the work of contemporary playwrights such as Martin Crimp Peter Handke and Elfriede Jelinek Among the plays discussed are The Other Shore written just before he left China in 1987 Between Life and Death 1991 compared in detail to Martin Crimp's Attempts

Diversity, Inclusion, and Representation in Contemporary Dramaturgy Philippa Kelly,2020-03-25 Diversity Inclusion and Representation in Contemporary Dramaturgy offers fresh perspectives on how dramaturgs can support a production beyond rigid disciplinary expectations about what information and ideas are useful and how they should be shared The sixteen contributors to this volume offer personal windows into dramaturgy practice encouraging theater practitioners students and general theater lovers to imagine themselves as dramaturgs newly inspired by the encounters and enquiries that are the juice of contemporary theater Each case study is written by a dramaturg whose body of work explores important issues of race cultural equity and culturally specific practices within a wide range of conventions venues and communities The contributors demonstrate the unique capacity of their craft to straddle the ravine between stage and stalls intention and impact By unpacking in the most up to date ways the central question of Why this play at this time for this audience this collection provides valuable insights and dramaturgy tools for scholars and students of Dramaturgy Directing The Cambridge Companion to Modern Chinese Culture Kam Louie, 2008-06-05 A wide ranging and Theater Studies and accessibly written guide to the key aspects of elite and popular culture in contemporary China Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Re-producing Chineseness in Southeast Asia Chih-yu Shih, 2017-10-02 Identity politics can impede Chinese identification in southeast Asia because the migrant population particularly the intellectual aspect of that population have to consider the political effects of their intellectual and social activities on the survival of Chinese communities Similarly these communities have to deal with the necessity of nation building in the aftermath of the Second World War which required integration rather than the exaggeration of differences Consequently restriction on self understanding as well as self representation has become more than apparent in Chinese migrant communities in southeast Asia With this in mind identity politics can inspire self understanding among the migrant communities as intellectuals rediscover how humanism can enable a claim of Chineseness that can be registered differently and creatively in a variety of national conditions Migrant communities generally understand the importance of political accuracy and this being accurate involves subscribing to pragmatism something which is apparent in the scholarship and creative outputs of these communities Humanism and pragmatism together are the epistemological parameters of self representation whereas civilizational and ethnic studies are their methodological parameters. This book was originally published as a special issue of Asian Ethnicity Asian Theatre Journal ,2008 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works

In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation Columbia Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Kirk A.
