Waddy, 2018-05-30 Buckshot Johnnycakes is a heart warming true life story of two 11 year old boys who met in the Scouting Movement in the Cowichan Valley on beautiful Vancouver Island British Columbia and spent the next 56 years of their lives sharing one continuous adventure after the other in scouting activities survival camping relic hunting for middens deep sea fishing buying and selling boats and antique cars working in sawmills and logging camps military service law enforcement private investigations hunting for wild game on a private island and numerous other daring exploits from childhood to becoming great grandfathers These characters are indeed the Canadian Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn complete with sense of humour This beautiful and touching story of two totally different personalities will bring laughter and tears to your eyes and heart A must read for the adult child in each and every one of us

From the Ashes Sarah Jaffe, 2024-09-10 The politics of grief in an era marked by loss shows us how we can find our humanity once more From one of our most vital and far seeing social critics Our era is one of significant and substantial loss yet we barely have time to acknowledge it The losses range from the personal grief of a single COVID death to the planetary disaster wrought by climate change We are in an age of unraveling hopes and expectations of dreams curtailed of aspirations desiccated What can we do This is capitalism s death phase It has become clear that the cost of wealth creation for a few is enormous destruction for others The marginalized and the vulnerable have been feeling the crisis for a long time but it is increasingly coming for all of us At the same time we are denied the means of mourning the futures that are being so brutally curtailed At such a moment taking the time to grieve is a radical act Through in depth reporting intertwined with memoir Sarah Jaffe shows how public memorialization has become more than a refusal or a protest it is a path to imagining a better world When we are able to mourn the lives the homes the worlds we have lost we are better prepared to fight for a transformed future
