Goodbye Marianne A Story Of Growing Up In Nazi Germany:

Good-bye Marianne Irene N.Watts,2009-06-05 A heartbreaking story of loss and love As autumn turns toward winter in 1938 Berlin life for Marianne Kohn a young Jewish girl begins to crumble First there was the burning of the neighbourhood shops Then her father a mild mannered bookseller must leave the family and go into hiding No longer allowed to go to school or even sit in a caf Marianne s only comfort is her beloved mother Things are bad but could they get even worse Based on true events this fictional account of hatred and racism speaks volumes about both history and human nature Reading

Globally, K8 Barbara A. Lehman,Evelyn B. Freeman,Patricia L. Scharer,2010-09-20 In Reading Globally K 8 the authors make the case for why it is necessary to be globally literate and multiculturally aware in today s shrinking world and they provide the tools teachers need to incorporate appropriate reading selections into primary and secondary school classrooms By using books from or about other countries teachers empower students to view the world in a more positive manner enriching and broadening their students lives and ultimately preparing them for life in a global economy and culture This reader friendly resource guides teachers and reading programme coordinators in selecting quality books for their classrooms incorporating global literature into different content areas and facilitating the discussions that follow Practical guidance is provided on how to Integrate the reading of global texts across the curriculum with specific application to language arts social studies science maths and the arts Locate and evaluate the authenticity and literary merit of potential books avoiding those that depict stereotypes Get started with an annotated list of children s books samples of student work and classroom vignettes from teachers The World Through Children's Books Susan Stan,2002 The World through Children s Books is a valuable and easy to use tool for librarians teachers and others who seek to promote international understanding through children s literature The annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country contains nearly 700 books representing 73 countries Sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY Challenging Stories Anne Burke,Ingrid Johnston,Angela Ward,2017-07-31 How can Canadian educators begin to instill cultural sensitivity and social awareness in elementary and secondary school students This vital text attempts to answer that question by bringing together literacy scholars and practicing teachers in a unique cross Canadian exploration of children s literature and social justice Through reflection on the experience of teaching with various Canadian texts including picture books novels and graphic novels the contributors behind Challenging Stories create a pedagogy of discomfort that will encourage both educators and their students to develop critical literacy skills The compelling contributions to this collection highlight the complexities of teaching with texts that address issues of discrimination historical marginalization colonialism racial and gender intolerance sexual orientation language and cultural diversity The authors offer first hand insight into the possibilities and challenges of implementing curricular and pedagogical changes to promote equity and social justice in the classroom Featuring the stories of participating teachers and an annotated bibliography of children s literature this invaluable resource will prove to be essential reading for current and future educators
