Sorkh Razil to the pipe dreams of Malibu's top nanny Zonker Harris and from the no more chill pills intervention by Obama's aides to the way cool love of a headbanging war vet and his MIT grad gal Doonesbury marches wildly on. What else is guaranteed to make you think, feel nostalgic and laugh out loud at least once a page? Karen Holt O Magazine The Long Road Home G. B. Trudeau, 2012-05-29 After losing his leg and his trademark helmet, B D returns home from Iraq to begin a remarkable journey of healing in this Doonesbury book. On a road outside Fallujah, an RPG blows apart a Humvee and upends the life of a former football star named B D. As a medevac chopper swoops down, the wounded Guardsman hears, "Not your time, bro. Not today." The Long Road Home: One Step at a Time chronicles seven months of cutting-edge cartooning during which B D and readers of the strip experienced the kind of personal transformation no one seeks. B D survives first response, Baghdad triage, evacuation to Landstuhl, and visits by innumerable celebs, both red and blue in hue. He's awed in turn by morphine, takes no guff from nurses, his fellow amputees, high-tech prostheses that cost more than luxury cars, and his family, including the daughter who hand-delivers succor, one aspirin at a time. From rebuilding tissue to rebuilding social skills to rebuilding lives, B D's inspiring, insightful, and darkly humorous story confirms that it can take a village or at least a ward to raise a soldier when he's gone down. Thank you for getting blown up, offers one of B D's visiting players. Replies the coach, Just doing my job.

Got War? G. B. Trudeau, 2013-02-19 Rear Admiral Steve Kunkle, commander of the carrier strike force, grimaced at a Doonesbury comic strip from the Japan Times. It showed a Navy pilot thinking, "Oops." As Doonesbury shifts to a wartime footing, the strip's major players find themselves pre-positioned for the coming cakewalk. Weekend warrior B D leaves the Fighting Swooshes of Walden in the care of acting Coach Boopstein, returning to the sands of Kuwait as Camp Blowback's Public Affairs Officer. Among his charges, Roland Hedley, veteran of a grueling combat training program designed to keep media folk from getting capped. Offshore, the irrepressible Morale Officer, Lieutenant Tripler, goes live. Good MORNING, regime changers, to lift the shipbound spirits of his pre-swarthy charges while offstage Viceroy-in-Waiting Duke prepares to answer empire's call. Stateside, Mike takes up a flanking position on the sofa to log some serious CNN time while the Reverend Sloan girds his loins for peace. Look for us on TV, we'll be a million strong, Marching to the beat of a different cause. Zonker's old surfing mentor tries to enlist Z in a desperate fight to liberate Left Coastal access. Protests, Zonk. What can I do, I am, but one dude. Meanwhile, Jeff Redfern is but one CIA intern yet he manages to launch a Predator drone and, using basic Nintendo training, knock out an Al Q. ammo dump. Also taking a hit, Trent Lott, busted for giving props to segregation. I was trying to say I was down with the hood, he backpedals, realizing too late that Mr. James Crow has finally left the house. With Alex declaring eco-jihad on SUVs and Elmont launching a daily assault on coherence, as on-line blogger Jenny McTaggart Girl Pirate, it's hard to see a peaceful world ahead. But Jimmy Thudpucker, can waging war on the recording industry, he and other filesharers have a vision of ultimate change de regime. The suits die off and Pepperland will be free again. The Weed Whisperer G. B. Trudeau, 2015-11-10 I don't read Doonesbury. He glorifies drugs. Former White House Press Secretary Marlin

Trudeau, 2023-12-14 In a class by itself Jules Feiffer on Doonesbury This all color volume celebrates the marriage of Alex and Toggle an event which optimistically confirms that life like Doonesbury rolls on Indeed how remarkable that the strip has so embraced and occupied its era that three generations of one family have married within its panels Gathering their kith and kin around them at Walden the wise but wounded soldier artist and the brilliant but insecure techhead make a promising team for the years ahead well rounded yet squared away Doonesbury's fifth decade finds the largest rep company in the history of comic strips fully and widely engaged Like so many flesh and blood fellow citizens key characters now struggle with dramatic career change and job stress And the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan continue to reverberate through the lives of others as the strip illuminates their experiences with an attentiveness unparalleled in popular culture Amid the relentless unfolding of unexpected storylines the strip's second and third generation characters increasingly take center stage and the youngest regular Sam comes of age literally in the blink of an eye as the newlyweds prepare to welcome twins It never ends and how lucky for readers Most comic strips run out of creative energy after their initial inspiration notes Garry Wills Trudeau has just kept improving year after year U.S. Militarism and the Terrain of Memory John

Bechtold, 2024-08-01 This book analyzes how the Iraqi city of Fallujah became registered as a setting for military heroics in American memory In 2004 the U S military conducted two disastrous assaults in Fallujah Iraq More than 1 000 citizens were killed and according to the military's own estimate upwards of 200 000 people were displaced because of the violence Yet despite this human catastrophe the kind of information that emerged in the public domain during the battle foregrounded the soldier's experience in war while effacing the destruction of Iraqi bodies This tendency to foreground the soldier body is a direct result of the military's intervention in what they conceptualize as the information environment This book draws from the second assault in Fallujah as a case study to explicate the military's investment in this perspectival space which is a consequence both of the mediatization of contemporary war and of the need to influence knowledge considered unfavorable to military operations In short the military enlists the media in their targeting process to produce information that is then deployed as persuasive force to modify the beliefs of specific target populations When the cultural texts produced by the media are remediated in the public domain after war they can be thought of as martial constructs because they originated during war through the military's systemized attempt to influence knowledge That is these texts trace to a specific battlefield objective This book reframes the notion of propaganda as a generalized public relations strategy into a more acute and coordinated attempt to decontextualize specific knowledge in the information environment This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies war studies memory studies and international relations Yuge!
