Jonathan Lethem James Peacock,2013-07-19 Jonathan Lethem is the first full length study dedicated to the work of an exciting genre busting contemporary writer with an increasingly high profile in American literature Examining all of Lethem's novels as well as a number of his short fictions essays and critical works this study shows how the author's prolific output his restlessness and his desire always to be subverting literary forms and genres are consistent with his interest in subcultural identities The human need to break off into small groupings subcultures or miniature utopias is mirrored in the critical tendency to enforce generic boundaries To break down the boundaries between genres then is partly to make a nonsense of critical distinctions between high and low literature and partly to reflect the wider need to recognise difference to appreciate that other people no matter how outlandish and alien they may appear share similar desires experiences and problems With this in mind James Peacock argues that Lethem's experiments with genre are not merely games or elaborate literary jokes but ethical necessities particularly when viewed in the light of the losses and traumas that shadow all of his writing Jonathan Lethem therefore makes an important contribution not just to Lethem studies but also to debates about genre and its position in postmodern or post postmodern literature It will be of interest to all scholars and students of contemporary American writing as well as those interested in genre fiction and literature's relationship with subcultures
