Ejo Poems Rwanda 1991 1994:

Ejo Derick Burleson, 2000 In 1994 the worst episode of genocide since the Holocaust of the Second World War ravaged the Central African country of Rwanda Derick Burleson lived there and taught at the National University during the two years leading up to the genocide The poems in this collection explore the cataclysm in a variety of forms and voices through the culture myths and customs he absorbed during this time Ejo meaning yesterday and tomorrow in Kinyarwanda celebrates in language both lyrical and austere the lives of the friends Burleson made in Rwanda those who survived to tell their own stories and those whose voices were silenced

Voodoo Inverso Mark Wagenaar, 2012-03-26 In this debut collection Voodoo Inverso Mark Wagenaar composes a startling mystical imagism and sets it to music using self portraits to explore differing physical and spiritual landscapes He uses a variety of personae a victim of sex trafficking in Amsterdam a fichera dancer a portrait haunted by Dante a carillonneur of starlight an elephant in pink slippers remembering its beloved to silhouette the intricacies and frailties of the body and the world In a series of gospels and histories such as the poems History of Ecstasy and Moth Hour Gospel he shines a light on the possibilities of transcendence and transfiguration weaving together memory and loss with desire and hope

Borrowed Dress Cathy A. Colman, 2001 With wry humor and unflinching honesty Cathy Colman crosses the terrain of love family and art asking why we resist becoming the person we truly are

Falling Brick Kills Local Man Mark Kraushaar, 2009-04-01 Falling Brick Kills Local Man is a daring and inventive collection of narrative poems rich with thoughtful and precise language Mark Kraushaar writes about what moves him whether that is the war in Iraq the notion of synchronicity the retelling of children's stories or a problem of recollection Often inspired by newspaper stories or witnessed scenes these poems are a refreshingly honest exploration of our interconnected and multifaceted world Finalist Poetry Midwest Book Awards

Blood Work Matthew Siegel, 2015-03-12 This debut collection of poetry explores pain and longing vulnerability and the illness of Crohn's disease leavened by moments of quiet humor and hope

About Crows Craig Blais, 2013-05-17 An unsentimental and at times disquieting first collection the poems of About Crows excavate self family race location sex art and religion to uncover the artifacts of a succession of traumas that the speaker does not always experience firsthand but carries with him to refashion into some new importance This is a book of half states broken affiliations and dislocation The speaker leads the reader through the fragments of a flooded town that grows increasingly elusive the more one looks for it through a succession of Seoul love motels that further displace the outsider to unclaimed margins transformed into sites of creative invention through galleries of artwork where movement color and image are renewed through ekphrasis and through the world of the metatextual long poem The Cult Poem where good and bad moral binaries tangle into a rat's nest of our best and worst spiritual ambitions The poems and sequences of About Crows are marked by their artistic balance of the sublime and the profane of polyphony syntactical complexity clashing images cagey humor and unsettling sincerity all trying desperately to connect

Last Seen Jacqueline Jones

LaMon,2011-03-10 Inspired by actual case histories of long term missing African American children this provocative and heartrending collection of poems evokes the experience of what it means to be among the missing in contemporary America This thought provoking collection of persona poems looks at absence from the standpoint of the witnesses surrounding the void and offers an intimate depiction of those impossible moments of aftermath lived by those who remain accounted for and present While enabling us to question our own sense of identity this unique collection of poems reveals the blurred edges of separation between them and us and the impact that the missing have upon our present and future Finalist NAACP Image Awards

The Royal Baker's Daughter Barbara Goldberg,2008-04-01 Winner of the 2008 Felix Pollak Prize in Poetry selected by David St John These poems at once elegant and earthy reveal the inner workings of the human psyche and show us that sometimes the best defense against terror is making mischief The Royal Baker's Daughter was raised on a diet of stone soup and the occasional leftover royal treat This leaves her with an appetite for authenticity With nothing but her two deft hands to guide her she embarks on a journey into the dark forest where sticks and stones and absolutes reign and nothing even sin is original Best Fall book from the Montserrat Review

The Lightning That Strikes the Neighbors' House Nick Lantz,2010-04-01 Nick Lantz explores the transformative power of tragic and miraculous experiences through these poems that illuminate near misses of tragedy and transcendence His gaze is both roving and microscopic the Challenger explosion Bigfoot a love letter written from inside a missile silo a mother naming and re naming a family's short lived pets and a plea for post 9 11 redemption Lantz never lets his subjects or his readers off the hook plunging head first into worlds that are both eccentric and familiar alarming and hopeful Finalist Foreword Magazine's Poetry Book of the Year

Historical Dictionary of Rwanda Aimable Twagilimana,2015-11-06 Blessed with natural beauty and rich vegetation Rwanda is often called the land of a thousand hills le pays des mille collines a reference to its many lush and green rolling hills Moreover for many Rwandans at least in the past Rwanda in spite of its small size is vast in fact it means the universe This idyllic view however sharply contrasts with the sad history of ethnic strife that unfolded since the 1950s the 1959 Hutu Revolution followed by years of anti Tutsi pogroms undemocratic regimes the civil war of 1990 1994 and more significantly the April July 1994 genocide against the Tutsi and the killing of Hutu who opposed the killings The 1994 genocide against the Tutsi remains the most defining single event in contemporary Rwanda and many people in the world today know of this central African nation from the prism of extreme mass violence that sullied the end of the 20th century amid international indifference and has since haunted the world's conscience This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Rwanda contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Rwanda
