Slow Harms and Citizen Action Veronica Herrera, 2024 Environmental degradation is not new yet the impact of pollution on human health and wellbeing is growing According to the World Health Organization 12.6 million people die annually from living or working near toxic pollution amounting to one quarter of global deaths Ninety two percent of these deaths occur in middle or low income countries where the majority of the global population lives For the millions of communities around the world where pollution is a slow moving long standing problem residents born into toxic exposure often perceive pollution as part of the everyday landscape particularly in low resource settings Local communities may also be both victims of pollution and complicit in perpetrating it themselves When and how do people mobilize around slow harms Moreover when does citizen action around slow harms unlock policy action In Slow Harms and Citizen Action Veronica Herrera chronicles the struggle against toxic exposure in urban Latin America Comparing advocacy movements for river pollution remediation in the capital regions of Argentina Colombia and Peru Herrera explains how citizen led efforts helped create environmental governance through networks that included impacted communities bonding mobilization and resourced allies bridging mobilization Through bonding and bridging mobilization citizen advocacy for slow harms activated the state s regulatory capacity Moreover Herrera illustrates how the most successful environmental movements occurred in settings where established human rights movements had previously helped dismantle state sponsored militarized violence By unpacking human rights movements as thoroughfares for environmental activism Slow Harms and Citizen Action sheds new light on the struggles for environmental justice in Latin America

Landscaping Indigenous Mexico Fernando Pérez-Montesinos, 2025-03-18 A history of the Purpecha people s survival amid environmental and political changes Landscapes are more than geological formations they are living records of human struggles Landscaping Indigenous Mexico unearths the history of Ju tarhu an Indigenous landscape shaped and nurtured by the Purpecha a formidable Mesoamerican people whose power once rivaled that of the Aztecs Although cataclysmic changes came with European contact and colonization Ju tarhu s enduring agroecology continued to sustain local life through centuries of challenges Contesting essentialist narratives of Indigenous penury Pérez Montesinos shows how Purpechas thrived after Mexican independence in 1821 using Ju tarhu s diverse agroecology to negotiate continued autonomy amid waves of national economic and political upheaval After 1870 however autonomy waned under the pressure of land privatization policies state intervention and industrial logging On the eve of the Mexican Revolution in 1910 Pur pechas stood at a critical juncture Would the Indigenous landscape endure or succumb Offering a fresh perspective on a seemingly well worn subject P rez Montesinos argues that Michoac n long considered a peripheral revolutionary region saw one of the era s most radical events the destruction of the liberal order and the timber capitalism of Ju tarhu Bulletin United States. Postcolonial Language Varieties in the Americas Danae Maria Perez,Eeva Sippola,2021-06-08 In the Americas both indigenous and postcolonial languages today bear witness of massive changes that have taken place since the colonial era However a unified approach to languages from different colonial areas is still missing The present volume studies postcolonial varieties that emerged due to changing linguistic and sociolinguistic conditions in different settings across the Americas The studies cover indigenous languages that are undergoing lexical and grammatical change due to the presence of colonial languages and the emergence of new dialects and creoles due to contact The contributions showcase the diversity of approaches to tackle fundamental questions regarding the processes triggered by language contact as well as the wide range of outcomes contact has had in postcolonial settings The volume adds to the documentation of the linguistic properties of postcolonial language varieties in a socio historically informed framework It explores the complex dynamics of extra linguistic factors that brought about the processes of language change in them and contributes to a better understanding of the determinant factors that lead to the emergence and evolution of such codes Lexicografía hispánica / The

Al hilo del tiempo Dámaso de Lario, 2014-11-03 Al hilo del tiempo recoge los artículos publicados por el autor en los últimos treinta años estructurados en torno a sus dos principales preocupaciones historiográficas las Cortes en especial las del Reino de Valencia y la burocracia de la España Imperial La primera parte sitúa las Cortes valencianas en el contexto de la península ibérica y de los parlamentos europeos y se explican los momentos y circunstancias que llevaron al País Valenciano a aceptar la propuesta de la Unión de Armas del Conde Duque de Olivares en las Cortes de 1626 La segunda parte analiza la función de los colegios mayores españoles como instituciones de mecenazgo para la educación de las elites burocráticas del imperio español y el papel que el Colegio español de Bolonia Italia juega en esa dinámica En la parte final se apuntan temas poco conocidos de una España que todavía conservaba un imperio como los intentos frustrados de crear una colonia penal española y los esfuerzos de Rafael Altamira en la creación del americanismo español El autor nos invita por último a repensar en base a la experiencia del pasado la relación de los dos países ibéricos España y Portugal

The Impacts of Innovative Institutions in Higher Education Noah Coburn, Ryan Derby-Talbot, 2023-09-30 As they have done historically innovative institutions enrich the college ecosystem helping the higher educational industry develop flexible resilience The chapters in this book showcase perspectives hard won lessons challenges and provocative ideas about how historically innovative institutions can contribute to the current discourse on innovation in higher education The chapters in this book include case studies of innovative campuses and practices as well as future looking directions for innovation Taken together they ask is there a way to consider how future trends can be navigated in effective ways so that the most important features of higher education student learning the liberal arts the cultivation of critical thinking can remain central to tomorrow's institutions

How Uruguay Became a Religious Ghetto Stephen Armet, 2025-05-15 Uruguayan society is an outlier when considering religious intensity among Latin American societies while presenting a paradox to sociologists of religion Embedded in a continent characterized by relatively high religiosity and religious adherence historically how do sociologists explain that Uruguay became an intensely secular society since the turn of the twentieth century Modernity theory has developed into a very particular theoretical model for understanding history such that secularization is believed to be inevitable linear and isomorphic in that it produces predictable uniformity which is Eurocentric In contrast this deviant case study offers a counterfactual understanding using Bourdieu's concepts of field and capital to explain how secularization develops This project contributes to the scholarly debate by showing that secularization is not an inevitable macro social mechanical process imputed to impersonal and abstract forces but is carried out by people and groups who manifestly want to laicize society and its sub structures
