El Mensaje de Guadalupe Lumen,2001-10-01 Caminemos Con Jesus Goizueta, Roberto S.,2025-04-30

Caminemos con Jesus Roberto S. Goizueta,1995-01-01 While the growth in both numbers and influence of Hispanics in North American Catholicism and Protestantism has been commented on widely up until now there has been no systematic attempt to define a Hispanic theology Roberto Goizueta a Cuban American theologian aware that Hispanic and Latino can be terms imposed artificially on diverse peoples finds a common link in the Spanish language and in a shared culture Central to this culture is the experience of exile of being a people at the margins of a society who must find and make their way together Central also is faith and its grounding in this experience of being in exile In delineating the very particular nature and worldview of Hispanic Latino theology Caminemos con Jesus challenges both traditional Euro American theologies and modern Western epistemological assumptions It examines the implications of this theological method for the Church and the academy as well as for the future of the Latino community and North American society Caminemos con Jesus provides lessons in discipleship for non Hispanics and Hispanics alike for students of contemporary theology and all those engaged in pastoral and church based work

El Mensaje de Guadalupe Lumen,2002-08-01 Religion and the Creation of Race and Ethnicity Craig R Prentiss,2003-06-01 The original essays in this collection shed light on the role religion and myth have played in the creation of race and ethnic categories When scholars approach religion and race they tend to focus on such issues as how African Americans have expressed Christianity or how Japanese or Mexicans have lived religiously This volume meant specifically for those new to the field offers a different perspective Prominent scholars illuminate the role religious myths have played in shaping those very social boundaries that we call races and ethnicities It asks what part did Christianity play in creating Blackness To what extent was Japanese or Mexican identity itself the product of religious life The text comprised of all original material introduces readers to the social construction of race and ethnicity and the ways in which these concepts are shaped by religious narratives It offers examples from both the U S and around the world exploring these themes in the context of places as diverse as Bosnia India Japan Mexico Zimbabwe and the Middle East The volume helps make the case that any account of the social construction of race and ethnicity will be incomplete if it fails to consider the influence of religious traditions and myths
