Volume 8, Tome II: Kierkegaard's International Reception - Southern, Central and Eastern Europe Jon Stewart, 2016-12-14 Although Kierkegaard's reception was initially more or less limited to Scandinavia it has for a long time now been a highly international affair. While in Scandinavia the attack on the Church in the last years of his life became something of a cause célèbre later many different aspects of his work became the object of serious scholarly investigation well beyond the original northern borders. As his reputation grew he was co-opted by a number of different philosophical and religious movements in different contexts throughout the world. The three tomes of this volume attempt to record the history of this reception according to national and linguistic categories Tome II covers the reception of Kierkegaard in Southern Central and Eastern Europe The first set of articles under the rubric Southern Europe covers Portugal Spain and Italy A number of common features were shared in these countries reception of Kierkegaard including a Catholic cultural context and a debt to the French reception The next rubric covers the rather heterogeneous group of countries designated here as Central Europe Hungary the Czech Republic Slovakia and Poland These countries are loosely bound in a cultural sense by their former affiliation with the Habsburg Empire and in a religious sense by their shared Catholicism Finally the Orthodox countries of Eastern Europe are represented with articles on Russia Bulgaria Serbia and Montenegro Macedonia and Romania
