

NOW TO HIM WHO IS ABLE TO PROTECT
YOU FROM STUMBLING
AND TO MAKE
YOU STAND IN THE PRESENCE OF HIS GLORY.
WITHOUT BLEMISH AND WITH GREAT JOY.
TO THE ONLY GOD OUR SAVIOR.
THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD, BE GLORY,
MAJESTY, POWER, AND AUTHORITY BEFORE ALL TIME.
NOW AND FOREVER.

El Salvador A Spring Whose Waters Never Run Dry:

Letter to the Churches from El Salvador, 1991 El Salvador, 1990 El Salvador Kevin Murray, 1997-01-01 This book in Oxfam's Country Profile series gives an account of the history of El Salvador and the inequalities and political corruption in Salvadoran society which were contributory causes of the long running civil war The ecological crisis facing the country and the unresolved issues of land tenure are also examined El Salvador Keeping the Peace reviews the efforts which are being made to rebuild communities and the obstacles which remain on the road to a stable and peaceful future El Salvador Scott Wright, 1990 The Westminster Collection of Christian Meditations Hannah Ward, Jennifer Wild, 2000-08-01 Over 500 meditations from more than 250 authors classic and contemporary are arranged by themes that address individual needs and concerns in this extensive anthology of Christian meditations Explorations In Global Ethics Sumner B Twiss, 2018-03-08 Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the World's Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue The contributors draw from both communities of discourse in addressing questions of method and theory and global moral issues such as human rights distributive justice politics of war international business the environment and genocide in a cross cultural context Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the World's Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue Its design is premised on two important insights First interreligious dialogue offers to comparative religious ethics a new more persuasive rationale agenda of issues and practical orientation Second comparative religious ethics offers to interreligious dialogue an arsenal of critical tools and methods which will enhance the sophistication of its practical work In this way both theory a dominant concern and strength of comparative religious ethics and praxis a dominant concern and strength of interreligious moral dialogue are joined together in mutual effort each contributing to the benefit of the other The volumes contributors share this vision of collaboration drawing explicitly from both communities of discourse in a manner that crosses disciplinary and professional boundaries to deal creatively and constructively with important methodological and global moral issues Although theory and practice cannot easily be separated in such a collaborative project for the purpose of clarity the volume is divided into two main parts The first specifically engages questions of method theory and the social role of the public intellectual the second on substantive moral themes and issues many of which were raised at the 1993 Parliament Taken together the volumes essays articulate and illustrate new ways of approaching contemporary moral concerns cross culturally yet with a rigor appropriate to our complex and pluralistic world Voices Of The Religious Left Rebecca Alpert, 2000-05-24 What has happened to the religious left If there is a religious left why don't we hear more about it The academics and activists who write this rich volume edited by Rebecca Alpert argue passionately on topics that concern all of us Quoting from the Bible the Torah the Qur'an the teachings of Buddha as well as Native American folklore they make the voices of the religious left heard teaching lessons of peace and liberation As this invaluable sourcebook shows the religious left is committed to issues of human rights and dignity Answering questions of identity and ideology the essays included here stem from the culture wars that have divided orthodox and liberal believers Responding to the needs of and raised by marginalized social groups the writers discuss economic issues and religious politics as they champion equal rights and promote the teaching of progressive vision Containing insightful perspectives of adherents to many faiths Voices of the Religious Left makes it clear that there is a group dedicated to instilling the values of justice and freedom They are far from silent All of the essays in this collection represent the power of the written word as a vehicle for advocacy and social change It is my hope that the readers of these essays will themselves feel compelled to think more about the importance of taking a stand on issues from religious perspectives and to act on something that compels them Rabbi Rebecca Alpert

Re-membering the Reign of God Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo, Laurel Marshall Potter, 2022-07-26 What does it mean for an historically colonial church to become the church of the poor in a world marked by pervasive and persistent coloniality Re membering the Reign of God addresses this question through historical and theological reflection on the decolonial evolution of El Salvador's ecclesial base communities CEBs in their own particular context of coloniality and prophetic hope The CEBs witness represents a rich locus for decolonizing theology and challenging the whole church to join the church of the poor in its prophetic praxis of decolonial solidarity

Once Upon a Mystery Michael E. Moynahan, 1998 A collection of story dramas reflection questions and exercises based on original biblical stories that invites the reader into imaginative engagement and human transformation

Mary, Mother of Martyrs Kathleen Gallagher Elkins, 2020-10-21 The Virgin Mary has been idealized as a self sacri cing mother throughout Christian history but she is not the only ancient maternal gure whose story is connected to violent loss This book examines several ancient representations of mothers and children in contexts of sociopolitical violence demonstrating that notions of early Christian motherhood as today are contextual and produced for various political social and ethical reasons In each chapter the ancient maternal gure is juxtaposed with an example of contemporary maternal activism to show that maternal self sacri ce can be understood as strategic varied politically charged and rhetorically flexible

Resources for Preaching and Worship - Year B Hannah Ward, Jennifer Wild, 2002-01-01 This is the first of a three volume lectionary resource that weaves together a rich tapestry of quotations meditations poems and prayers by classic and contemporary spiritual writers Each volume links with the lectionary readings for Sundays and for important festival days such as Christmas Easter and Pentecost Anyone who is concerned with preaching on Sunday or leading study groups or prayer groups during the course of the week can find here something to feed personal reflection to stimulate ideas for sermon themes and to provide stories and poems as well as prayers that in some way relate to the biblical readings for the day concerned

Liberating Faith Roger S. Gottlieb, 2003 Table of contents Faithful Listening Joan Mueller, 1996-07 ItOs a gift ItOs an art ItOs a process Discernment is all of this and more Read to fall in love with the Holy Spirit who moves us to better decisions and more balanced relationships The difficulty of discerning choices is a basic unfamiliarity with the nature and process of discernment itself Mueller remedies this with a textured overview of this practical charism of the Spirit how when where and why to discern examining models of good discernment from scripture and history with particular attention to Ignatian rules for discerning Seed Falling on Good Soil Gordon W.

King,2016-05-16 Seed Falling on Good Soil is a unique book that combines a historically informed approach to Lucan parables with a critical understanding of social justice issues of our own age The author proposes that the stories told by Jesus were narratives of resistance challenging audiences to participate in the personal and social transformation of God s kingdom The author s experience in international community development provides a perspective rarely found among New Testament specialists The book uses stories from the margins of our current world to connect the message of the parables with global issues of poverty ethnic violence gender discrimination hunger and oppression This book will appeal to people who long for the healing of a wounded world Gifts Of Many Cultures Maren C. Tirabassi,Kathy Wonton

Eddy,1995-06-15 A moving collection of liturgical resources from the global community Gifts of Many Cultures will enrich the worship life of congregations in all denominations Tirabassi and Eddy have developed an anthology of original prayers poetry stories and readings for sermons invocations calls to worship confessions liturgies for Holy Communion and baptism guided meditations songs drawings and other resources designed around the seasons of the church year This book will help enrich worship encourage cross cultural appreciation facilitate church mission programming and deepen spiritual understanding across the global community This Promised Land, El Salvador Beth Cagan,1991 Ten years ago thousands of men women and children from El Salvador fled to Honduras to escape government repression and violence They gathered together into a refugee camp Colomoncagua What began as a disorganized collection of individuals would develop into a near utopian community of 8 400 people The refugees arrived as illiterate and frightened peasants with little experience with democratic institutions within a few years they transformed the camp into an economically active democratic and participatory society Steve and Beth Cagan tell the story of the refugees harrowing flight their determination to make a better life for themselves and their brave decision to return to El Salvador We learn of the refugees successful efforts at developing education occupational training improved nutrition health care gender equality and participatory democracy despite extreme poverty and confinement and repression from the Honduran government But even as they were creating a new life for themselves the refugees were longing for their homeland El Salvador After long and complex negotiations with the governments of Honduras and El Salvador the refugees repatriated literally picking up their community and crossing over the border There in early 1990 they established a new city named for one of the slain Jesuit priests Dr Segundo Montes where they hope to maintain their communitarian style of work and organization This compelling story is illustrated with over one hundred superb photographs of the refugees and their community The pictures and text work together inspiring us to believe that people can sustain hope and can work to improve the conditions of their lives even in the worst circumstances Basta ,1988

Promised Land Scott Wright,1994 As a Catholic lay missionary Scott Wright spent a decade living and working with the poor people of the land ironically called Savior El Salvador In this memoir he offers a tribute to the courage and faith of the Salvadorans recounting the years of war and struggle and ending with the recent declaration of peace and the dawn of a new hope From refugee camps to decimated villages to the capital of San Salvador Wright traces a hard journey of faith Back cover
