reunida de Patricia Shaw Patricia Shaw, 2000 The Nineteenth-century Spanish Story Lou Charnon-Deutsch, 1985 El cuento español en el siglo XX Epicteto Díaz Navarro, José Ramón González García, 2002 Este libro propone al lector mediante la revisión de un corpus textual ampliamente representativo un acercamiento panorámico a los principales autores y tendencias del cuento literario español en el siglo XX. Es pues y sobre todo una útil herramienta informativa que permite apreciar la riqueza y la variedad de un género que carecía hasta el momento de un estudio sintético que proporcionase una visión de conjunto. En este sentido aspira a cubrir un vacío bibliográfico ofreciendo un mapa general con el que iniciar un recorrido crítico capaz de valorar lo que la práctica del cuento ha dado de sí en la España de los últimos cien años. Por otra parte la particular atención que presta a los procedimientos narrativos y a las fórmulas propias desarrolladas por cada uno de los autores estudiados apunta posibles vías de acercamiento y sirve de orientación a quien desee profundizar en el conocimiento de una obra o de un periodo determinado. Simple Spanish Lessons Luigi Alfonso Passarelli, 1926 Postcolonial Approaches to Latin American Children's Literature Ann González, 2018-01-31 In this volume González explores how the effects of a traumatic colonial experience are represented to Latin American children today almost two centuries after the dismantling of colonialism. Proper Central to this study is the argument that the historical constraints of colonialism, neocolonialism and postcolonialism have generated certain repeating themes and literary strategies in children's literature throughout the Spanish speaking Americas. From the outset of Spanish domination fundamental tensions emerged between the colonizers and native groups that still exist to this day. Rather than a felicitous mixing of these two opposing groups the mestizo is caught between contrasting worldviews contending explanations of reality and different values, beliefs and epistemologies that is different ways of seeing and knowing. Postcolonial subjects experience these contending cultural beliefs and practices as a double bind, a no-win situation in which they feel pressured by mutually exclusive expectations and imperatives. Latin American mestizos therefore are inevitably conflicted. Despite the vastness of the geography in question and the innumerable variations in regional histories, oral traditions and natural settings these contradictory demands create a pervasive dynamic that penetrates the very fabric of society showing up intentionally or not in the stories passed from generation to generation as well as in new stories written or adapted for Spanish speaking children. The goal of this study therefore is to examine a variety of children's texts from the region to determine how national and hemispheric perceptions of reality, identity and values are passed to the next generation. This book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Latin American literary and cultural studies, children's literature, postcolonial studies and comparative literature. Bajo el árbol del paraíso Juan José Prat Ferrer, 2008 Los paradigmas simbólicos y otros constructos que el hombre culto ha usado en el desarrollo de la Folclórica forman parte de este estudio. Los reformadores de costumbres humanistas e historiadores de los pueblos desarrollaron un interés por construir una cultura nacional basada en la preservación de un pasado prestigioso bajo la idea de una Edad de Oro original. Los fundadores de la disciplina buscaron la identidad cultural de los pueblos fijando su atención en la cultura rural. Diversas escuelas se interesaron por buscar el origen de las tradiciones y su diseminación por Europa tras el descubrimiento de las formas internacionales del folclore.
