Knowledge for a Sustainable World Tor Halvorsen,Hilde Ibsen,2015-12-07 The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly urgent In the context of higher education many universities and academics are seeking new insights that can shift our dependence on ways of living that rely on the exploitation of so many and the degradation of so much of our planet This is the vision that drives SANORD and many of the researchers and institutions within its network Although much of the research is on a relatively small scale the vision is steadily gaining momentum forging dynamic collaborations and pathways to new knowledge The contributors to this book cover a variety of subject areas and offer fresh insights about chronically under researched parts of the world Others document and critically reflect on innovative approaches to cross continental teaching and research collaborations This book will be of interest to anyone involved in the transformation of higher education or the practicalities of cross continental and cross disciplinary academic collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a network of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join Focus on Federal Employee Health and Assistance Programs ,1990 How to Care for Aging Parents, 3rd Edition Virginia Morris,2014-02-11 The bible of eldercare ABC World News An indispensable book AARP A compassionate guide of encyclopedic proportion The Washington Post And winner of a Books for a Better Life Award How to Care for Aging Parents is the best and bestselling book of its kind and its author Virginia Morris is the go to person on eldercare for the media appearing on Oprah TODAY and Good Morning America among many other outlets How to Care for Aging Parents is an authoritative clear and comforting source of advice and support for the ever growing number of Americans now 42 million who care for an elderly parent relative or friend And now in its third edition it is completely overhauled and updated chapter by chapter and page by page with the most recent medical findings and recommendations It includes a whole new chapter on fraud details on the latest aging in place technologies more helpful online resources and everything you need to know about current laws and regulations Also new are fill in worksheets for gathering specifics on medications caregivers names schedules and contact info doctors phone numbers and addresses and other essential information in one handy place at the back of the book From having that first difficult conversation to arranging a funeral and dealing with grief and all of the other important issues in between How to Care for Aging Parents is the essential guide Legal and Healthcare Ethics for the Elderly George P. Smith II,2022-04-18 Increasingly legislators at the state and federal levels of government are forced to evaluate and act upon the unique problems presented by an aging American public A domino effect has occurred evoking concern in educational circles to deal with the varied complex issues associated with the new gerontology This expanded focus brings in not only mental and public health delivery issues but reaches and impacts on the social sciences ethics law and medicine as well as public policy In response to these matters Legal and Healthcare Ethics for the Elderly provides a balanced analytical presentation of the complicated socio legal medico ethical and political perspectives which interact with gerontology as a field of study In a straightforward and unambiguous style it covers information on access and financing healthcare the ethics of rationing healthcare and the inevitable link to the quality of life guardianship issues in a nursing home setting informed consent living wills and durable powers of attorney elder abuse and death with dignity The economics of care giving is charted and directed by the sometimes harsh realities of the marketplace Thus the various philosophical and ethical dilemmas which confront the process of aging are examined here both from a micro and from a macro economic perspective This book exemplifies that it is vitally important to be educated now to be prepared for the future and thereby make informed decisions for both ourselves and our loved ones
