Children's Literature Barbara Stoodt, 1996

Deep Human Connection Stephen Cope, 2019-03-26 Lovingly crafted deep richly engaging and wise Jack Kornfield An important resource for many years to come Sharon Salzberg brilliant and utterly engaging Tara Brach This glorious book explores the essence of connection through 5 essential types of relationships guiding us into the infinite mysteries of human attunement Bessel van der Kolk New York Times bestselling author of The Body Keeps the Score Do you long to connect more deeply with other human beings Do you wonder if you're living up to your human potential to make these deep connections happen and perhaps missing out on this most compelling aspect of a vital life In this groundbreaking book bestselling author Stephen Cope invites us to explore the most important questions in this domain What is the nature of human connection Why precisely is a capacity to connect deeply so important to the development of our minds bodies and spirits What are the actual mechanisms of connection that we must master during the course of life How can our lack of connection inhibit our happiness and satisfaction in life Can we learn to connect more wisely than we do Cope is well known as a master storyteller and he seamlessly blends science scholarship and storytelling drawing on poignant stories from his own life as well as the lives of famous figures from E M Forster to Sigmund Freud to Queen Victoria whose formative relationships shed light on the nature of connection itself In the process he lays out in stunning detail the precise mechanisms of human connection which he distills into five helpful categories containment twinship adversity mirroring and conscious partnership Then he invites us into a remarkably practical reflection on how these forms of connection appear in our own lives helping us work toward a fuller understanding of deep human connection and a more satisfying and fruitful life Deep Human Connection was originally published as Soul Friends World War II in Literature for Youth Patricia Hachten Wee, Robert James Wee, 2004-11-10 This comprehensive volume provides a wealth of information with annotated listings of more than 3 500 titles a broad sampling of books on the war years 1939 1945 Includes both fiction and nonfiction works about all aspects of the war Professional resources for educators aligned to the educational standards for social studies technical references periodicals and electronic resources a directory of WWII museums memorials and other institutions and topics for exploration complement this excellent library and classroom resource Women in History Lerner Publishing Group, 2003-05-01 Creative Minds Biographies This theme unit introduces intermediate readers to several women who changed history Through their courage perseverance and intellect the women in these lively well written biographies forever altered their communities and impacted the world The Adversity Formula Steven Mason, 2024-06-14 Early in the 2020 pandemic author Steven Mason seeking inspiration to help cope during the Covid 19 crisis began to examine the lives of some of the great personalities from history After considerable research he discovered that many of these individuals had overcome significant adversity on their path to success After sharing these stories with others he was inspired to write this book The Adversity Formula Inspirational Lessons from History reviews the lives of thirty remarkable characters from history to see how they dealt with adversity The book goes on to provide a formula that readers can themselves apply to their own lives Selected mainly from the 20th Century the fifteen men and fifteen women include scientists entrepreneurs humanitarians politicians entertainers sports stars and war heroes The list contains well known names like Stephen Hawking Steve Jobs and Walt Disney but also features lesser known profiles of Virginia Hall Irena Sendler and Victor Frankl a holocaust survivor who after his experiences in the concentration camps developed a therapy to find meaning and purpose in adversity The book looks at the adversity these greats faced what they achieved despite it but also how they dealt with adversity often using it to their advantage Their coping mechanisms are summarised in five characteristics for each individual and packaged into a general formula for tackling life's problems The conclusion found within these pages is that it is often how people respond to adversity that can determine successful outcomes The Adversity Formula Inspirational Lessons from History will be particularly relevant to those interested in self development especially during difficult times as well as those with a love of history The book offers hope in the face of life's major challenges

Frances Perkins Naomi Pasachoff, 1999 Frances Perkins 1880-1965 was the first woman appointed to a U.S. cabinet post and the longest serving Secretary of Labor Perkins had a long and illustrious record as a social activist she reorganized New York state's factory inspections system advocated the Workmen's Compensation Act and promoted the legislative protection of women and child laborers As U.S. Secretary of Labor under Roosevelt she helped develop major New Deal legislation including the Social Security Act and the Fair Labor Standards Act Always regarded with some hostility by both organized labor and the business community Perkins survived an attempt to impeach her in 1939 As one of the most distinguished and trailblazing women in the history of American government Perkins is often studied in American history classes Moreover her career touched on issues key to our current debates about government and social policy This book is richly illustrated with documents and rare photographs Oxford Portraits is a new series of biographies for young adults Written by prominent writers and historians each of these titles is designed to supplement the core texts of the middle and high school curriculum with intriguing thoroughly informative and insightful accounts of the lives and work of the notable men and women who helped shape history Each book is illustrated with numerous graphics photographs and documents A unique feature is the inclusion of sidebars containing primary source material mostly excerpts from the subject's writings A chronology further reading list and index rounds out every volume

Soul Friends Stephen Cope, 2017-04-04 Most of us will have many friends throughout our lifetimes friends of all shapes sizes and callings Many of these are wonderful meaningful friendships Some are difficult But some magic few of these are connections that have gone right to our soul These five or seven or ten friendships have been powerful keys to determining who we have become and who we will become These are the people I call Soul Friends As the Senior Scholar in Residence for over 25 years at the renowned Kripalu Center Stephen Cope has spent decades investigating and writing about the integration of body mind and spirit and the rich complexity of our relationships with others and with ourselves Perhaps the central truth that arises from his work is this human beings are universally wired for one thing vital connection with one another Soul Friends invites us on a compelling journey into the connectivity of the human psyche the study of which has fascinated scholars philosophers and thinkers for centuries Cope seamlessly blends science scholarship and storytelling drawing on his own life as well as the histories of famous figures from Eleanor Roosevelt to Charles Darwin to Queen Victoria whose formative relationships shed light on the nature of friendship itself In his exploration he distills human connection into six distinct yet interconnected mechanisms containment twinship adversity mirroring identification and conscious partnership Then he invites us to reflect on how these forms of connection appear in our own lives helping us work toward a fuller understanding of who we have become and who we will become Without a doubt the journey to our most fulfilled selves requires us to look within But in order to truly thrive we must make the most of who we are in relation to one another as well Unsparingly honest deeply wise and irresistibly readable Soul Friends gives us a map to find our way Not Necessarily the Newberys Joan Louthain Ayer, 2018-11-14 When Anita Silvey spoke at our Children's Literature Conference at Butler University several years ago it was quite a thrill for those of us who share her enthusiasm for well written books The former editor of The Horn Book Magazine wore one of her signature hats and sat casually on the edge of the stage and chatted with us Her 2004 book 100 Best Books for Children has been one of my most trusted references as I chose these 75 books for your independent reader She tells us in her bio for these books that she estimates she has read 125 000 children's books in her lifetime I chose eleven of her classic recommendations to review for you in this book Here are six of these not to be missed titles Betsy Tacy The Incredible Journey The Cricket in Times Square Sarah Plain and Tall Stone Fox and Tom's Midnight Garden Making a Difference Days Elizabeth Cole Midgley, 2008-09-01 Make your classroom a place of celebration with the creative ideas in this packet that focus on people who have made a difference in the world Each special day includes suggestions for incorporating it into your regular curriculum such as language arts social studies math science and sensory experiences The celebrations in this packet include Gandhi's Birthday Eleanor Roosevelt's Birthday United Nations Day and Teddy Roosevelt's Birthday With these ideas your students will have fun and look forward to learning
