Election A Novel:

Election Tom Perrotta, 1998-10-01 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Leftovers and Tracy Flick Can't Win comes a darkly hilarious novel about a high school election that brings out the worst in everyone the basis for the film starring Reese Witherspoon Tracy Flick wants to be President of Winwood High She's one of those ambitious girls who finds time to do it all edit the yearbook star in the musical sleep with her English teacher But another teacher staunch idealist Jim McAllister aka Mr M thinks the students deserve better So he persuades Paul Warren a well liked good hearted jock to throw in his hat But that puts Paul's sister Tammy in a snit So she runs too on an apathy platform before starting a real campaign to get herself kicked out of school The idea was to educate the students at this suburban New Jersey school in the democratic process and the American way But with all the sex scandals smear campaigns and behind the scenes power brokers at Winwood High it doesn't look as if they need any lessons

The Election Book, 2012 Making Black History Dominique Haensell, 2021-10-04

This study proposes that rather than trying to discern the normative value of Afropolitanism as an identificatory concept politics ethics or aesthetics Afropolitanism may be best approached as a distinct historical and cultural moment that is a certain historical constellation that allows us to glimpse the shifting and multiple silhouettes which Africa as signifier as real and imagined locus embodies in the globalized yet predominantly Western cultural landscape of the 21st century As such Making Black History looks at contemporary fictions of the African or Black Diaspora that have been written and received in the moment of Afropolitanism Discursively this moment is very much part of a diasporic conversation that takes place in the US and is thus informed by various negotiations of blackness race class and cultural identity Yet rather than interpreting Afropolitan literatures merely as a rejection of racial solidarity as some commentators have they should be read as ambivalent responses to post racial discourses dominating the first decade of the 21st century particularly in the US which oscillate between moments of intense hope and acute disappointment Please read our interview with Dominique Haensell here <https://blog.degruyter.com/de-gruyters-10th-open-access-book-anniversary-dominique-haensell-and-her-winning-title-making-black-history>

The Crisis of Liberal Democracy in Contemporary Novels Leander Møller Gøttcke, 2025-04-22

This book explores how contemporary novels reflect a profound shift in Western culture from the political optimism of the post Cold War era to growing fears about the future of liberal democracy Analysing four major works Karl Ove Knausgård's My Struggle series Zadie Smith's White Teeth Boualem Sansal's 2084 and Michel Houellebecq's Submission it shows how these novels illuminate current social discontents and engages the anxieties of our time Where the so called end of history narrative once promised a triumphant liberal democracy novelistic fiction today reflects a more ominous outlook progressives are haunted by dystopian visions of democratic decline while reactionaries fear cultural displacement and yearn for a lost Golden Age Bridging literary analysis and political theory the book offers new perspectives on how literature engages with and challenges contemporary political narratives making it a vital resource for those interested in the intersection of politics and literature

The Memoirs of John F. Kennedy: A Novel Donald James Lawn, The Memoirs of John F Kennedy A Novel brings to life the tantalizing possibilities of what might have been had JFK remained president after November 22 1963 This book imagines an America where progressive leadership takes hold during the 1960s where President Kennedy after a grueling fight for his life in a Dallas hospital survives his chest wounds and returns to the presidency He is elected for a second term He does not mount a ground war in Vietnam Foreign relations with Cuba the Soviet Union South America and our allies and adversaries around the world follow a very different path This novel interweaves a two track story One takes place in 1963 at Parkland Medical Center and follows Attorney General Robert F Kennedy Jackie Kennedy Lyndon Johnson and J Edgar Hoover as they cope with the explosive events of the assassination attempt while the wounded president hovers near death The other more lighthearted fictional story line unfolds through the eyes of Patrick Hennessey the memoirist appointed by JFK during the approaching end of his second term in 1968 Through in depth talks at the White House Camp

David Hyannisport on Air Force One and golfing on Kennedy's private course at Glen Ora Patrick gets to know the president as he reviews his decisions regarding the difficult path toward a peaceful resolution of world crises This well researched alternate history will strike a chord with readers worldwide those fascinated with the Kennedy mystique and those interested in the potential for politics to be done right during challenging times Considering the current period and the 50th anniversary of JFK's election re imagining a more positive past may enable us to collectively envision a more enlightened future

Outlook and Independent, 1916 American Literature in the Era of Trumpism Dolores Resano, 2022-08-23 This edited collection offers an exploration of American literature in the age of Trumpism understood as an ongoing sociopolitical and affective reality by bringing together analyses of some of the ways in which American writers have responded to the derealization of political culture in the United States and the experience of a new American reality after 2016 The volume's premise is that the disruptions and dislocations that were so exacerbated by the political ascendancy of Trump and his spectacle laden presidency have unsettled core assumptions about American reality and the possibilities of representation The blurring of the relationship between fact and fiction bolstered by the discourses of fake news and alternative facts has not only drawn attention to the shattering of any notion of shared reality but has also forced a reexamination of the purpose and value of literature especially when considering its troubled relation to the representation of America The authors in this collection respond to the invitation to reassess the workings of fiction and critique in an age of Trumpism by considering some of the most recent literary responses to the new American realities including works by Colson Whitehead Ben Winters Claudia Rankine Gary Shteyngart Jennifer Egan and Steve Erickson to name but a few some of which were composed in the run up to the 2016 election but were able to accurately and incisively imagine the world to
