Latin American Mystery Writers Darrell B. Lockhart, 2004-03-30 Latin America has a rich literary tradition that is receiving growing amounts of attention The body of Latin American mystery writing is especially vast and diverse Because it is part of Latin American popular culture it also reflects many of the social and cultural concerns of that region This reference provides an overview of mystery fiction of Latin America While many of the authors profiled have received critical attention others have been relatively neglected Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 54 writers most of whom are from Argentina Mexico and Cuba Every effort has been made to include balanced coverage of the few female mystery writers Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a critical discussion of the writer s works and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with a general bibliography of anthologies and criticism The Routledge Companion to Crime Fiction Janice Allan, Jesper Guldal, Stewart King, Andrew Pepper, 2020-04-07 The Routledge Companion to Crime Fiction is a comprehensive introduction to crime fiction and crime fiction scholarship today Across 45 original chapters specialists in the field offer innovative approaches to the classics of the genre as well as ground breaking mappings of emerging themes and trends The volume is divided into three parts Part I Approaches rearticulates the key theoretical questions posed by the crime genre Part II Devices examines the textual characteristics of crime fiction Part III Interfaces investigates the complex ways in which crime fiction engages with the defining issues of its context from policing and forensic science through war migration and narcotics to digital media and the environment Rigorously argued and engagingly written the volume is indispensable both to students and scholars of crime fiction The Routledge Handbook of Crime Fiction and Ecology Nathan Ashman, 2023-10-27 The Routledge Handbook of Crime Fiction and Ecology is the first comprehensive examination of crime fiction and ecocriticism Across 33 innovative chapters from leading international scholars this Handbook considers an emergent field of contemporary crime narratives that are actively responding to a diverse assemblage of global environmental concerns whilst also opening up classic crime fictions and writers to new ecocritical perspectives Rigorously engaged with cutting edge critical trends it places the familiar staples of crime fiction scholarship from thematic to formal approaches in conversation with a number of urgent ecological theories and ideas covering subjects such as environmental security environmental justice slow violence ecofeminism and animal studies The Routledge Handbook of Crime Fiction and Ecology is an essential introduction to this new and dynamic research field for both students and scholars alike

Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian Detective Fiction Renée W. Craig-Odders, Jacky Collins, Glen S. Close, 2006-03-20 The image of the hard boiled private investigator from gritty pulp fiction a terse and mysterious figure has become increasingly universal as the detective novel crosses more and more borders A booming genre in Latin America Spain and other Hispanic cultures detective fiction has transcended the limitations of its influences Hispanic authors relatively new to the genre have published novels and series popular with the public while a number of well known writers have adapted the genre to reflect the concurrent globalization of modern society and the crimes within it This volume presents a compilation of 11 critical essays on genero negro contemporary detective fiction in the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian canon Surveying the last twenty years the text analyzes emerging trends in this rapidly evolving genre as well as the mutations and innovations taking place within the style The first section of the book is dedicated to the detective fiction of Spain and Portugal The second section surveys works from Latin America and the United States where topics touch on universal subjects like crime identity and feminism El desencanto en las novelas El alemán de Atacama y Cita en el azul profundo de Roberto Ampuero Jorge Sotelo Aguilar, Universidad Católica de Chile. Encyclopedia of Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900-2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those following Spanish or Portuguese language courses

Investigating Identities, 2009-01-01 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction

Cinematic Journeys in Latin America Richard Francaviglia, 2023-08-30 This book critically examines how movies that feature real or imagined explorers and expeditions creatively feature the geography of Latin America It focuses on how locales are scripted into film plots and artistically depicted and demonstrates that place is as important as any character in a film especially in this genre Nineteen key films are analyzed Some like Aguirre the Wrath of God Fitzcarraldo The Other Conquest Embrace of the Serpent and The Lost City of Z are based on the exploits of real explorers Others are fictional including Apocalypto Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull and Dora and the Lost City of Gold The author also discusses the evolution of exploration discovery films including trends that will likely be found in forthcoming movies

Moon Chile Wayne Bernhardson, 2013-07-23 Seasoned author and South America expert Wayne Bernhardson covers the best of Chile's rich history and culture from skiing in the boroughs of Santiago to wine tasting in the country's heartland To help travelers plan for their trip Bernhardson includes insightful and fun suggested itineraries such as 10 Days Skiing in the Andes Exploring Wine Country and Exploring Chilean Highlights With information on fly fishing at Sur Chico following the path of Chilean poet Pablo Neruda and exploring the remote corners of the Atacama desert Moon Chile gives travelers the tools they need to create a more personal and memorable experience

Global Literary Studies Diana Roig-Sanz, Neus Rotger, 2022-12-05 While the very existence of global literary studies as an institutionalised field is not yet fully established the global turn in various disciplines in the humanities and the social sciences has been gaining traction in recent years This book aims to contribute to the field of global literary studies with a more inclusive and decentralising approach Specifically it responds to a double demand the need for expanding openness to other ways of seeing the global literary space by including multiple literary and cultural traditions and other interdisciplinary perspectives in the discussion and the need for conceptual models and different case studies that will help develop a global approach in four key avenues of research global translation flows and translation policies the post 1989 novel as a global form global literary environments and a global perspective on film and cinema history Gathering contributions from international scholars with expertise in various areas of research the volume is structured around five target concepts space scale time connectivity and agency We also take gender and LGBTQ perspectives as well as a digital approach
