El hombre que se habita Adriano Meschi,2024-12-02 El hombre que se habita está en contacto con su cuerpo se permite sentir y expresar sus emociones La gran herida de la masculinidad es la desconexión de uno mismo que lleva a una falta de autoconocimiento Este libro es una propuesta terapéutica que acompaña a los varones a reconectar emocionalmente para que puedan tomar las riendas de su vida El enfoque se basa en tres ejes fundamentales la relación con el cuerpo las emociones y la sexualidad El autor plantea que el estereotipo patriarcal de la masculinidad no solo ha promovido la violencia hacia las mujeres sino que ha obstaculizado el desarrollo de la conciencia en los hombres Son los hombres quienes más necesitan la transformación de su masculinidad hacia una versión más sensible y vulnerable que equilibre las energías femenina y masculina La tarea es doble porque por un lado los varones hasta ahora no han logrado generar una voz propia en el proceso de redefinir su masculinidad Por otro lado en muchos casos han intentado comprenderse desde el feminismo radical sin buscar en sí mismos el motor de la transformación hacia una versión auténtica
