Ana Sierra, 2002 Ana Luisa Sierra's thought provoking essays deal with the way in which literary works reflect various latent perspectives of sex and gender and how a text may likewise construct a vision of gender which may be subsequently incorporated into society Investigating Gender, Translation and Culture in Italian Studies Monica Boria, Linda Risso, 2007 The past few years have witnessed a growing academic interest in Italian Studies and an increasing number of symposia and scholarly activities This volume originates from the Society for Italian

Studies Postgraduate Colloquia that took place at the University of Leicester and Cambridge in June 2004 and April 2005 respectively. It gathers together articles by young researchers working on various aspects of Italian Studies. It well illustrates current trends in both typical areas of research like literature and high culture and in those which have gained momentum in recent years like translation and language studies. The volume offers a taste of the dynamic outlook of current research in Italian Studies: the interdisciplinary approach of the essays in translation and gender studies and the innovative methodological perspectives and findings offered by the new fields of Italian L2 and ethnography. The book is divided into three sections each grouping contributions by broad subject areas: literature and culture, translation and gender studies, language and linguistics. Cross fertilizations and interdisciplinary research emerge from several essays and the coherent ensemble constitutes an example of the far reaching results achieved by current research.

Written in Exile Ignacio Lopez-Calvo, 2019-07-16 On September 11 1973 Chile's General Pinochet led a quick and brutal military coup ousting the Allende government. Ignacio Lopez Calvo argues that the rise of the Pinochet dictatorship and the subsequent imprisonment of any Allende sympathizers shaped Chilean narrative into two structural forms: liberationist narrative, cathartic journalistic testimonies that provide models for revolutionary behavior against authoritarianism and demystifying narrative which uses the events of 1973 as well as the colonial aspirations of European countries as a Paradise Lost backdrop in which the characters of this type of fiction are able to create their non-political realities that become models of democratization.

A History of Chilean Literature Ignacio López-Calvo, 2021-10-14 This book covers the heterogeneity of Chilean literary production from the times of the Spanish conquest to the present. It shifts critical focus from national identity and issues to a more multifaceted transnational hemispheric and global approach. Its emphasis is on the paradigm transition from the purportedly homogeneous to the heterogeneous.
