International Perspectives on Elder Abuse Amanda Phelan, 2013 Elder abuse has been increasingly recognised over the past ten years in many countries and progress has been made in both understanding and addressing the issue This volume provides a much needed international overview of the topic Opening with an examination of what elder abuse is Amanda Phelan sets it in a theoretical context and looks at assessment and approaches to the issue in residential and community care environments The book then presents a range of country studies which provide an overview of the context of elder abuse in the country and a discussion of related policy legislation research and practice Countries covered include Ireland United Kingdom Spain China Australia Kenya Israel Canada and the United States whilst a regional chapter looks at South America A concluding chapter draws together cross cultural comparisons and provides some guidance as to best practice The only comprehensive book in this area International Perspectives on Elder Abuse is an invaluable reference for practitioners academics and researchers from a range of disciplines including nursing social work sociology public health and social policy

Elder Abuse in Perspective Simon Biggs, 1995 Elder Abuse in Perspective examines how the mistreatment of older people is defined theorized and researched It places the problem in its social and historical context giving special attention to forms of abuse within families communities and institutions like hospitals and residential homes The book looks at issues around training and elder abuse and explores the most effective methods of intervention and prevention Elder Abuse in Perspective challenges many commonly held assumptions and provides new insight into elder abuse and neglect It is perhaps the first book in recent years to provide a critical and reflective analysis of this growing social issue It is an essential addition to the library of practitioners researchers and students of old age Old Age Abuse Mervyn Eastman, Age Concern England (Organization), 2013-11-11 Age Concern always seeks to be at the forefront in raising issues of importance as part of our continuing fight to improve the quality of life of older people To this end we are privileged in being able to draw on the skills of people with the commitment expertise and enthusiasm to press for much needed change When some years ago we published a book by Mervyn Eastman on old age abuse the subject was largely unrecognized He played a pioneering role in drawing attention to this difficult and sensitive topic classifying the various types of abuse analysing their causes their tragic effects and the different contexts in which they were likely to occur Earlier when I joined Age Concern I had been struck by the paucity of knowledge of old age abuse My previous work with children and young people provided me with stark reminders of how much more developed both policy and practice were in dealing with the abuse of children Even in that field there was still much to learn and subsequent legislation policy guidelines and codes of practice have taken us further down the road by constructing clear lines of accountability and by protecting and representing children at risk by helping potential abusers and developing practice that avoids punishing victims through removing them from their homes The Dimensions of Elder Abuse Gerry Bennett, Paul Kingston, Bridget Penhale, 1997-11-11 Adopting an interdisciplinary framework in recognition of the range of domestic and institutional settings in which elder abuse can occur this book both explains the nature of this under reported and little understood problem and addresses the vital question of how practitioners can best work towards its prevention Locating elder abuse in a spectrum of family violence the book gives a balanced account of relevant perspectives on it drawn from the medical legal health and social welfare spheres Elder Abuse Jordan I Kosberg, Juanita L Garcia, 2013-12-02 Here is an informative overview of the causes and consequences of elder abuse in countries around the world This book delves into the global problem of elder abuse and identifies similarities and differences that occur from country to country Elder Abuse International and Cross Cultural Perspectives increases understanding of the problem of elder abuse helping you recognize more easily the causes of elder abuse in your own country and find tactics to counter these causes Strategies from around the world can help in the development of local community resources and social policies to minimize the occurrence of elder abuse and its impact on the elderly their families and all members of society Elder Abuse International and Cross Cultural Perspectives discusses elder abuse in countries ranging from Australia to Finland from South Africa to Hong Kong from Ireland to Israel It addresses the consequences of aging dynamics of elder abuse family care of the elderly formal and informal mechanisms for preventing elder abuse and methods by which to publicize possibilities of abuse In each chapter authors explore the definition of elder abuse in their country the extent of the problem causes of the problem as related to values and practices societal attitudes regarding the existence of the problem private and public efforts to detect and prevent the problem and to intervene where it has occurred Elder Abuse International and Cross Cultural Perspectives provides the impetus for community resources social planning and public resources It is of interest to individuals who work in social work nursing and psychology settings and to those in social science fields of sociology anthropology and gerontology The book can also serve as an enlightening reader for undergraduate and graduate professional education

Inadequate Care of the Elderly Terry T. Fulmer, Terrence A. O'Malley, 1987

International Perspectives on Elder Abuse Amanda Phelan, 2013-03-12 Elder abuse has been increasingly recognised over the past ten years in many countries and progress has been made in both understanding and addressing the issue This volume provides a much needed international overview of the topic Opening with an examination of what elder abuse is Amanda Phelan sets it in a theoretical context and looks at assessment and approaches to the issue in residential and community care environments The book then presents a range of country studies which provide an overview of the context of elder abuse in the country and a discussion of related policy legislation research and practice Countries covered include Ireland United Kingdom Spain China Australia Kenya Israel Canada and the United States whilst a regional chapter looks at South America A concluding chapter draws together cross cultural comparisons and provides some guidance as to best practice The only comprehensive book in this area International Perspectives on Elder Abuse is an invaluable reference for practitioners academics and researchers from a range of disciplines including nursing social work sociology public health and social policy

Elder Abuse Andrew Papadopoulos, 2023-07-21 This book is primarily aimed at care workers and other practitioners whose roles involve working directly with older individuals couples and families experiencing abuse and who seek to enhance their knowledge and skills concerning psychological therapies

Perspectives on Elderly Crime and Victimization Peter C. Kratcoski, Maximilian Edelbacher, 2025-09-26 The updated second edition of this textbook focuses on understanding and addressing the criminality and victimization experienced by the elderly population globally It offers insights into the prevalence of elderly crime and victimization through international comparisons and explores effective strategies to tackle this issue The book covers a wide range of topics including the types of crimes committed by the elderly the characteristics of older offenders and the responses of the criminal justice system such as diversion programs and community based treatments It also delves into specialized programs providing health and mental health services for older prisoners Furthermore the new edition expands on processing and rehabilitation approaches for elderly offenders along with services aimed at preventing protecting and caring for elderly victims It also includes comparative international research on crime prevention methods and legislative measures making it a valuable resource for students in criminology criminal justice sociology and gerontology

Elder Abuse Daphne S. Pay, British Columbia Institute on Family Violence, 1993

Geriatric Issues in Community Psychology Perspective Prof Ram Jee Lal, 2024-09-02 The book entitled Geriatric Issues in Community Psychology Perspectives embraces the salient features of aging process In community psychology perspective the conceptual shifts are needed to change societal attitudes now dominated by negative age stereotypes The older adults face the challenge of maintaining autonomy in a society Encouraging older adults to stay active not only benefits their physical social psychological and emotional well being but also contributes to the greater society The book addresses the problems of aged Since the aging population is growing rapidly the goals and strategies of the UN program on aging which are consistent with community psychology principles could be utilized to provide more direction on priorities for the aging Giving importance of social action and community intervention efforts be made to improve the lives of older adults These improvements can be achieved through empowerment public education and policy or legislative changes The book highlights the components of successful aging and well being of elderly Rethinking Ageing Simon Biggs,Chris Phillipson,Paul Kingston,1995 Aging: Caring for Our Elders David N. Weisstub,David C. Thomasma,S. Gauthier,G.F. Tomossy,2013-06-29 Caring for Our Elders is the second of three volumes on Aging conceived for the International Library of Ethics Law and the New Medicine Leading scholars from a range of disciplines address some of the major issues in elder care facing modern nations familial duties of care the future of social welfare systems housing dementia abuse and neglect International Encyclopedia of Public Health William C Cockerham,2016-10-06 International Encyclopedia of Public Health Second Edition Seven Volume Set is an authoritative and comprehensive guide to the major issues challenges methods and approaches of global public health Taking a multidisciplinary approach this new edition combines complementary scientific fields of inquiry linking biomedical research with the social and life sciences to address the three major themes of public health research disease health processes and disciplines This book helps readers solve real world problems in global and local health through a multidisciplinary and comprehensive approach Covering all dimensions of the field from the details of specific diseases to the organization of social insurance agencies the articles included cover the fundamental research areas of health promotion economics and epidemiology as well as specific diseases such as cancer cardiovascular diseases diabetes and reproductive health Additional articles on the history of public health global issues research priorities and health and human rights make this work an indispensable resource for students health researchers and practitioners alike Provides the most comprehensive high level internationally focused reference work available on public health Presents an invaluable resource for both researchers familiar with the field and non experts requiring easy to find relevant global information and a greater understanding of the wider issues Contains interdisciplinary coverage across all aspects of public health Incorporates biomedical and health social science issues and perspectives Includes an international focus with contributions from global domain experts providing a complete picture of public health issues Rural Victims of Crime Rachel Hale,Alistair Harkness,2022-12-30 Rural Victims of Crime offers a pioneering sustained assessment of the rural victim It does so by examining and analysing the conceptual constructs of a victim and challenging the urban bias of victimisation and victimology in criminological study Indeed far too much criminological scholarship is based on the false assumption that rural areas are relatively crime free and thus free too of victims Providing international perspectives chapters in this edited collection focus centrally on notions of place and space and constructions of rural victims in a variety of contexts exploring the impact that geographic location has on the type and prevalence of victimisation The concept of victimisation is often considered in terms of interpersonal relationships between humans neglecting the potent impact of victimisation of non humans and the natural and built environment Rural Victims of Crime discusses existing notions of victimology in relation to non human subjects broadening conceptualisations of the victim and associated impacts resulting from victimisation Structured in three parts Rural Victims of Crime conceptualises the rural victim enhances understanding of the realities of rural victimisation and considers both formal and informal responses to rural victimisation Chapters are accompanied by practical contemporary case studies to connect theory with praxis This book is an essential and valuable resource for academics students and practitioners alike in the fields of criminology criminal justice rural studies victimology geography sociology and spatiality The Harassment and Abuse of Older People in the Private Rented Sector Nancy Carlton,2003-01-29 Help the Aged funded this major study because of concerns that older people living in private rented housing were vulnerable to abuse and harassment by landlords Drawing upon detailed research with older people professionals and landlords in six different localities the report provides the first major study of this important issue The report concludes with a series of recommendations to central and local government These include the need for changes in such areas as the overall regulation of the sector the rights of older tenants and in the housing benefit system The recommendations also cover the need for better training for professionals about abuse and harassment improved age related records and the need for improved funding for advice and advocacy services This study will be essential reading for a wide range of practitioners and academics whose interests and responsibilities span older people and their reliance upon the housing and welfare systems Encyclopedia of Social
