Elders Wisdom From Australia's Indigenous Leaders:

Elders Peter McConchie, 2003-07-08 This book is about indigenous peoples and their traditional and contemporary ways of living

Book Review Elders: Wisdom from Australia's Indigenous Leaders by Peter McConchie J S. Ryan, 2003

Book review The Habitat of Australia's Aboriginal Languages Gerhard Leitner, Ian G. Malcolm, 2008-08-22 The languages of Aboriginal Australians have attracted a considerable amount of interest among scholars from such diverse fields as linguistics political studies archaeology or social history As a result there is a large number of studies on a variety of issues to do with Aboriginal Australian languages and the social contexts in which they are used There is however no integrative reader that is easily accessible to the non specialist in any of the areas concerned The collection edited by Leitner and Malcolm fills this gap Looking at Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders and their changing habitats from pre colonial times to the present the book covers languages from a structural and functional linguistic perspective moves on to the issue of cultural maintenance and then turns to language policy planning and the educational and legal dimensions Among the many themes discussed are the social and linguistic history of language contact after 1788 including the Macassans the demographic base of indigenous languages traditional indigenous languages results of language contact such as the modification of traditional languages and the rise of contact languages pidgins creoles esp Kriol Torres Strait Creole and Aboriginal English the impact of the Aboriginal languages on mainstream Australian English maintenance shift revival and documentation of indigenous and contact languages language planning language in education language in the media language in the law courts The contributors are leading experts in their fields The book can serve as a reader for university courses but also as a state of the art work and resource for specialists like applied linguists or educational planners

International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Social (In)Justice Ira Bogotch, Carolyn M. Shields, 2013-11-11 The International Handbook on Educational Leadership and Social In Justice creates a first of its kind international forum on conceptualizing the meanings of social justice and leadership research approaches in studying social justice and combating social injustices school university and teacher leadership for social justice advocacy and advocates for social justice socio cultural representations of social injustices glocal policies and leadership development as interventions The Handbook is as much forward looking as it is a retrospective review of educational research literatures on social justice from a variety of educational subfields including educational leadership higher education academic networks special education health education teacher education professional development policy analyses and multicultural education The Handbook celebrates the promises of social justice while providing the educational leadership research community with concrete contextualized illustrations on how to address inequities and combat social political and economic injustices through the processes of education in societies and educational institutions around the world

Capturing the Ineffable Philip Y. Kao, Joseph S. Alter, 2020-05-12 Grounded in ethnographic case studies that examine experiences from which wisdom emerges Capturing the Ineffable provides a rigorous analysis of the sociocultural context of wisdom in the contemporary world Each chapter in the volume deals with different aspects and showcases how communities in different contexts nursing homes religious organizations corporations and monastic institutions for example engage with the ineffability of wisdom Contributors draw from a range of disciplines and cross cultural and historical data in order to interpret the meaning and value of wisdom as a human endeavour This book also represents an anthropological method for evaluating various philosophical and scientific approaches to understanding wisdom including how wisdom is learned and taught Readers will be able to appreciate how action emotion uncertainty and cultural systems come to bear on wisdom as a value in human life and expression In the end Capturing the Ineffable reveals how the conception and paradoxical nature of wisdom dispels the dichotomies of self other structure agency known unknown nature culture and the like What is at stake is a recasting of wisdom as a particular kind of anthropological endeavour and thus a return to and modification of philosophical anthropology

Global Indigenous Communities Lavonna L. Lovern, 2021-05-15 Global Indigenous Communities is a wide ranging examination of global Indigenous communities that continue to suffer from colonization and assimilation issues including intergenerational trauma The scholarship is interdisciplinary it is not easily categorized as sociology anthropology ethnography or philosophy but cuts across all of these disciplines as well as Indigenous methodologies The book not only presents an academic study of Indigenous issues covering Indigenous community life religion the environment economic matters education and healthcare but also incorporates contributions from Carol Locust EdD that reflect on her lifetime of experience in Indigenous education and healthcare Each studied prism of Indigenous life is revealed to be impacted by the experience of intergenerational trauma that results from continued colonization Ultimately this book aims to bridge the communication gap between Western and Indigenous scholarship and readership artfully combining Indigenous approaches with a traditional academic style

Heartsick for Country Sally Morgan, Tjalamina Mia, Blaze Kwaymullina, 2021-05-11 The stories in this anthology speak of the love between Aboriginal peoples and their countries They are personal accounts that share knowledge insight and emotion each speaking of a deep connection to country and of feeling heartsick because of the harm that is being inflicted on country even today through the logging of old growth forests converting millions of acres of land to salt fields destruction of ancient rock art and significant Aboriginal sacred sites and a record of species extinction that is the worst in the world

The Routledge Handbook of Australian Indigenous Peoples and Futures Bronwyn Carlson, Madi Day, Sandy O'Sullivan, Tristan Kennedy, 2023-09-19 Providing an international reference work written solely by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander authors this book offers a powerful overview of emergent and topical research in the field of global Indigenous studies It addresses current concerns of Australian Indigenous peoples of today and explores opportunities to develop and support the development of Indigenous resilience and solidarity to create a fairer safer more inclusive future Divided into three sections this book explores What futures for Aboriginal and or Torres Strait Islander peoples might look like and how institutions structures and systems can be transformed to such a future The complexity of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island life and identity and the possibilities for Australian Indigenous futures and The many and varied ways in which Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples use technology and how it is transforming their lives This book documents a turning point in global Indigenous history the disintermediation of Indigenous voices and the promotion of opportunities for Indigenous peoples to map their own futures It is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Indigenous studies as well as gender and sexuality studies education studies ethnicity and identity studies and decolonising development studies Location-Shaped Theologies Rosemary Dewerse, 2024-10-01 Context is profoundly significant for shaping our understanding of God and what it means to be human In this volume three scholars from South Australia explore the gifts of and challenges to theologies shaped by their locations In Reimagining God and the Church in Australia through an Adnyamathanha Lens Rev Dr Aunty Denise Champion from the Flinders Ranges argues for attending to ancient wisdom gifted by ancestors in Country as our primary resource for understanding the new thing that is Christ She explores some of her peoples experiences of and the ongoing implications therefore for church and Christology in this place Jesus Walking on Aboriginal Countries by Dr Labhaoise Upton a Catholic woman charts the surprising wisdom she encountered listening to Elders along the Dingo Songline as she took up Pope John Paul II s 1986 charge to joyfully receive the contribution to the Church of Aboriginal peoples And in Locational Challenges for Second Generation Asian Australian Theology Rev Cyrus Kung a second generation Hong Kong Chinese Australian presses by way of autobiographical theology into the locational challenges he perceives exist for him and others like him to theologise in Australia Questioning Indigenous-Settler Relations Sarah Maddison, Sana Nakata, 2019-08-30 This book examines contemporary Indigenous affairs through questions of relationality presenting a range of interdisciplinary perspectives on the what who when where and why of Indigenous settler relations It also explores relationality a key analytical framework with which to explore Indigenous settler relations in terms of what the relational characteristics are who steps into these relations and how the different temporal and historical moments in which these relations take place and to what effect where these relations exist around the world and the variations they take on in different places and why these relations are important for the examination of social and political life in the 21st century Its unique approach represents a deliberate move away from both settler colonial studies which examines historical and present impacts of settler states on Indigenous peoples and from postcolonial and decolonial scholarship which predominantly focuses on how Indigenous peoples speak back to the settler state It explores the issues that inform shape and give social legal and political life to relations between Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples both in Australia and globally Developing Magical Consciousness Susan Greenwood, 2019-09-30 Offering a new template for future exploration Susan Greenwood examines and develops the notion that the experience of magic is a panhuman orientation of consciousness a form of knowledge largely marginalized in Western societies In this volume she aims to form a bridge of communication between indigenous magical or shamanic worldviews and rationalized Western cultures She outlines an alternative mythological framework for the latter to help develop a magical perception as well as giving practical case studies derived from her own research The form of magic discussed here is not fantastic or virtual but ecological and sensory Magical knowledge infiltrates the body in its deepest levels of the subconscious and unconscious as well as conscious awareness it is felt and understood through the connection with an inspired world that includes the consciousness of other beings including those of plant animal and the physical environment This is anthropology from the heart rather than the head and it engages with the messy area of emotions an embodiment of the senses and struggles to find a common language of listening to one another across a void of differences The aim is to provide a non reductive structure for the creative interplay of both magical and analytical modes of thought Passion is a motivator for change and a change in attitude to magic as an integrative force of human understanding is the main thread of this work
