Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections Joleen Steyn Kotze, Narnia Bohler-Muller, 2020-12-17 Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections is a critical reflection on the key lessons of Elections 2019 in South Africa focusing on the future of the country's electoral democracy The volume engages questions on land election campaigns voter turnout voter apathy and how opposition parties will be forced to co exist in the context of declining electoral dominance the ANC once comfortably held An important reflection on the lessons of the 2019 South African General Elections the contributors ask Quo Vadis South Africa The 2019 General Elections marked a watershed in South Africa's political landscape The ANC under the banner of a narrative of regeneration and getting back on the moral path dipped below the 60 % mark for the first time in South Africa's democratic history This decline in electoral support for the party may be interpreted as a degeneration of the ANC through the loss of its moral stature the erosion of its integrity and disillusionment with its performance as a governing party Opposition political parties could not capitalise on this seeming disillusionment with the ruling ANC Caught in their own factional battles and in the midst of corruption scandals opposition parties were unable to successfully increase their share of the vote and capture the undecided and disillusioned voter Considering the future of South Africa's electoral democracy at 25 years of democracy Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections will be of great interest to scholars of African Studies South Africa Governance and Elections The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Politikon South African Journal of Political Studies The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa York W. Election Observation and Democratization in Africa NA NA, 2016-04-30 This book offers an authoritative study of election observation in Africa and its relation with democratization processes Election observation is a hotly debated issue in contemporary international relations and in political science It is seen by donor countries and the international community as a means to enhance democratization but has been controversial with regard to the mandates of the observers the cases of its misappropriation by authoritarian governments and its masking of other donor country interests The book addresses fundamental issues of elections and democratization in Africa evaluation policies and implementation as well as the historical backgrounds A range of case studies leads to new interpretations which challenge previous empiricist accounts of election observation in Africa Greater attention to historical and cultural context is required than has been present in previous somewhat prescriptive accounts An interdisciplinary approach gives fair coverage of the historical political and cultural issues involved in elections and election observation in Africa Key examples of the interface between election observation and democratization processes in various important countries in Africa are presented linking an analysis of policies and practice The book contributes to topical debates on the dilemmas and challenges of good governance and on the varieties of democracy as a global phenomenon Elections and TV News in South Africa Bernadine Jones, 2021-08-02

The Republic of South Africa RSA held its first fully democratic elections in April 1994 They were a highly visible signal that the RSA is really moving from the era of apartheid towards a democratic constitutional state The process is an archetypal case of a negotiated transition of a regime and as such it is of great interest to students of constitutional mechanisms The contributors to this book leading South African political scientists discuss the process the difficulties and the achievements in the transformation of the RSA's political and legal institutions They address various aspects of constitutional design and their interactions with social forces They examine the new constitution the roles of president and executive the electoral party and parliamentary systems and the Constitutional Court They look at the public service at questions of labour and corporatism at the RSA's changing

The New Colored People Jon M. Spencer, 2000-08 Most Americans remain oblivious of a new racial phenomenon that may radically alter the political landscape of the United States In recent years dramatic increases in racial intermarriage have given birth to a generation of mixed race children whose interracially married parents refuse to allow them to be shoehorned into neat pre existing racial categories The parents through organizations they have founded or joined have lobbied aggressively for the category multiracial to be added to official racial classifications at the state and federal levels including the United States census Since a nonracial society is one of the stated goals of the multiracialists Spencer suggests that the undoing of racial classification will come not by initiating a new classification which will only give Americans the impression that mixed race people can be neatly classified but by our increased recognition that there are millions of people who simply defy classification
