Nonpartisan Primary Election Reform R. Michael Alvarez, J. Andrew Sinclair, 2015-04-16

Over the years observers of American politics have noted the deleterious effects of party polarization in both the national and state legislatures Reformers have tried to address this problem by changing primary election laws A theory underlies these legal changes the reformers tend to believe that more open primary laws will produce more centrist moderate or pragmatic candidates The top two primary just implemented in California represents the future of these antiparty efforts Nonpartisan Primary Election Reform examines California's first use of the top two primary system in 2012 R Michael Alvarez and J Andrew Sinclair evaluate the primary from a variety of perspectives and using several different methodologies Although the first use of this primary system in California did not immediately reshape the state's politics it also did not have many of the deleterious consequences that some observers had feared This study provides the foundation for future studies of state primary systems

Democracy in the States Bruce E. Cain, Todd Donovan, Caroline J. Tolbert, 2011-06-01 Democracy in the States offers a 21st century agenda for election reform in America based on lessons learned in the fifty states Combining accessibility and rigor leading scholars of U S politics and elections examine the impact of reforms intended to increase the integrity fairness and responsiveness of the electoral system While some of these reforms focus on election administration which has been the subject of much controversy since the 2000 presidential election others seek more broadly to increase political participation and improve representation For example Paul Gronke Reed College and his colleagues study the relationship between early voting and turnout Barry Burden University of Wisconsin Madison examines the hurdles that third party candidates must clear to get on the ballot in different states Michael McDonald George Mason University analyzes the leading strategies for redistricting reform And Todd Donovan Western Washington University focuses on how the spread of safe legislative seats affects both representation and participation Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis famously observed that a single courageous state may if its citizens choose serve as a laboratory and try novel social and economic experiments without risk to the rest of the country Nowhere is this function more essential than in the sphere of election reform as this important book shows
