Electric Rivers The Story Of The James Bay Project:

Electric Rivers Sean McCutcheon, 1991 Published by Black Rose Books 3981 Blvd St Laurent Suite 444 Montreal Quebec H2W 1Y5 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR A Nation Within a Nation Marie-Anik Gagné, 1994 Struggle for the Land Ward Churchill, 2002-09 Landmark work illustrates the history of North American indigenous resistance and the struggle for land rights The Atlas of U.S. and Canadian Environmental History Char Miller, 2003-08-08 This visually dynamic historical atlas chronologically covers American environmental history through the use of four color maps photos and diagrams and in written entries from well known scholars Organized into seven categories each chapter covers agriculture wildlife and forestry land use and management technology and industry pollution Social Policy and Practice in Canada Alvin Finkel, 2012-05-09 Social Policy and Practice in Canada A History traces the history of social policy in Canada from the period of First Nations control to the present day exploring the various ways in which residents of the area known today as Canada have organized themselves to deal with or to ignore the needs of the ill the poor the elderly and the young This book is the first synthesis on social policy in Canada to provide a critical perspective on the evolution of social policy in the country While earlier work has treated each new social program as a major advance and reacted with shock to neoliberalism's attack on social programs Alvin Finkel demonstrates that right wing and left wing forces have always battled to shape social policy in Canada He argues that the notion of a welfare state consensus in the period after 1945 is misleading and that the social programs developed before the neoliberal counteroffensive were far less radical than they are sometimes depicted Social Policy and Practice in Canada A History begins by exploring the non state mechanisms employed by First Nations to insure the well being of their members It then deals with the role of the Church in New France and of voluntary organizations in British North America in helping the unfortunate After examining why voluntary organizations gradually gave way to state controlled programs the book assesses the evolution of social policy in Canada in a variety of areas including health care treatment of the elderly child care housing and poverty Home Is the Hunter Hans M. Carlson, 2009-05-01 The James Bay Cree lived in relative isolation until 1970 when Northern Quebec was swept up in the political and cultural changes of the Quiet Revolution The ensuing years have brought immense change for the Cree who now live with the consequences of Quebec's massive development of hydroelectricity timber and mineral resources in the North Home Is the Hunter presents the historical environmental and cultural context from which this recent story grows Hans Carlson shows how the Cree view their lands as their home their garden and their memory of themselves as a people By investigating the Cree's relationship with the land and their three hundred years of contact with outsiders the author illuminates the process of cultural negotiation at the foundation of ongoing political and environmental debates This book is more than a story of dam building and industrial logging in northern Quebec It offers a way of thinking about indigenous peoples' struggles for rights and environmental justice in Canada and elsewhere The American Empire and the

Fourth World Anthony J. Hall, Tony Hall, 2005 In a book that Naomi Klein says could change the world Anthony Hall shows that the globalization debate actually began in 1492 American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony J. Hall, 2003-11-10 In The American Empire and the Fourth World Anthony Hall presents a sweeping analysis of encounters between indigenous people and the European empires national governments and global corporations on the moving frontiers of globalization since Columbus discovered America How should we respond to the emergence of the United States as the military commercial and cultural centre of a global empire How can we elaborate a global rule of law based on equality and democracy when the world s most powerful polity acknowledges no higher authority in the international arena than its own domestic priorities For Hall the answer lies in the concept of the Fourth World an inclusive intellectual tent covering a wide range of movements whose leaders seek to implement alternative views of globalization Larger than any earlier political movement the Fourth World embraces basic principles that include the inherent rights of self determination and a more just approach to the crafting and enforcement of international law Indians in the United States and Canada Roger L. Nichols, 2018-09 Drawing on a vast array of primary and secondary sources Roger L Nichols traces the changing relationships between Native peoples and whites in the United States and Canada from colonial times to the present Dividing this history into five stages beginning with Native supremacy over European settlers and concluding with Native peoples political economic and cultural resurgence Nichols carefully compares and contrasts the effects of each stage on Native populations in the United States and Canada This second edition includes new chapters on major transformations from 1945 to the present focusing on social issues such as transracial adoption of Native children the uses of national and international media to gain public awareness and demands for increasing respect for tribal religious practices burial sites and historic and funerary remains Development-induced Displacement C. J. De Wet, 2006 Some ten million people worldwide are displaced or resettled every year due to development projects such as the construction of dams irrigation schemes urban development transport conservation or mining projects The results have usually been very negative for most of those people who have to move as well as for other people in the area such as host populations People are often left socially and institutionally disrupted and economically worse off with the environment also suffering as a result of the introduction of infrastructure and increased crowding in the areas to which people had to move The contributors to this volume argue that there is a complexity and a tension inherent in trying to reconcile enforced displacement of people with the subsequent creation of a socio economically viable and sustainable environment Only when these are squarely confronted will it be possible to adequately deal with the problems and to improve resettlement policies Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New Risks and Reconstruction Michael M. Cernea, Chris McDowell, 2000-01-01 This book offers a multidimensional comparative analysis of two large groups of the world s displaced populations resettlers uprooted by development and refugees fleeing military conflicts or natural calamities The authors explore common central issues the condition of being displaced the risks of impoverishment and destitution the rights and entitlements of those uprooted and most important the means of reconstruction of their livelihoods Adapt de l Introduction
