Goodbye To Poplarhaven Recollections Of A Utah Boyhood:

Goodbye to Poplarhaven Edward A. Geary, 2017-10-30 Nothing is nicer Grandpa used to say than a full barn and a full granary He might have said a full cellar too for the rows of bottled fruit loomed on the shelves in the dim light and the aroma of apples filled the nostrils We could sit down at the dinner table knowing where everything on it had come from and the process by which it had been prepared We had before us and around us tangible evidence of the interconnection of things of tilling and seedtime and harvest of process and product work and reward Abundance is what remained when the threshing was done and the mellow Utah autumn slid gradually into winter abundance in the storehouse for man and beast evidence that we reap as we have sown And abundance in the memory which lasts long after the barn and granary are empty hulks for sometimes we also reap where others have sown from chapter sixteen Goodbye to Poplarhaven Edward A. Geary, 1985

The Mountainous West William Wyckoff, Larry M. Dilsaver, 1995-01-01 Traditional interpretations of the American West have concentrated on the importance of its aridity to the region's cultural evolution and development But the West is marked by a second fact of physical geography that distinguished it from the experiences of settlers from the east As pioneers struggled with the climate west of the hundredth meridian they were also confronted by mountains strewn across the region and offering their own set of limitations and opportunities This volume focuses on these green islands of the Mountainous West that have witnessed patterns of settlement and development distinct from their lowland neighbors In thirteen essays the contributors address the mountains by means of five themes the mountains as barriers to movement islands of moisture a zone of concentrated resources an area of government control and a restorative sanctuary The focus ranges from California's Sierra Nevada to the Rocky Mountains of Colorado Utah and Montana William K Wyckoff is an associate professor Department of Earth Sciences Montana State University He is the author of The Developer's Frontier The Making of the Western New York Landscape and of articles in many journals including The California Geographer Social Science Journal Geographical Review and Journal of Historical Geography Larry M Dilsaver is a professor in the Department of Geology and Geography University of South Alabama The author with William Tweed of Challenge of the Big Trees A Resource History of Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Parks he has also written articles in journals such as Geographical Review Annals of Tourism Research and Yearbook of the Association of Pacific Coast Geographers
