Economic Growth And Employment In China:

Economic Growth and Employment in China Thomas G. Rawski, 1979 Investigating the relation between growth and employment in China this report shows that over the past two decades the world's largest developing nation made significant strides towards the goal of full employment of its labor force by the ability of the agricultural sector to absorb the unemployed

Employment and Economic Growth in Urban China 1949-1957 Christopher Howe, 1971-07-02 A study of China's urban employment problems between 1949 and 1957 Its main objectives are to analyse the size and determinants of urban employment change and to trace the evolution both of Chinese thinking about employment and the institutions of labour control that reflected this thinking in day to day administration

China's Labor Market Performance and Challenges Mr. Ray Brooks, Tao Ran, 2003-11-01 A more market oriented labor market has emerged in China in the past twenty years with growing importance of the urban private sector as state owned enterprises have downsized Despite the progress on reforms a sizable surplus of labor still exists in the rural sector and state owned enterprises The main challenge facing China's labor market in coming years is to absorb the surplus labor into quality jobs while adjusting to World Trade Organization WTO accession This paper estimates that if annual GDP growth averages 7 percent and the employment elasticity is one half urban unemployment could double to about 10 percent over the next three to four years These pressures would be limited by stronger economic growth especially in the private sector and more labor intensive service industries which have generated the most jobs in recent years Therefore policy should focus on encouraging private sector development while reducing barriers to labor mobility improving worker skills upgrading job search services and strengthening the social safety net

The Turning Point in China's Economic Development Ross Garnaut, Ligang Song, 2006-08-01 Focuses on China's long term pattern of growth and employment demographic shifts and rural urban migration its agricultural trade and local elections China's banking sector reform and its fiscal sustainability its environmental concerns and much more
