Economic History Of Europe Twentieth 3ed:

Economic History of Europe, Twentieth Century Shepard Bancroft Clough, Thomas Moodie, Carol Gayle, 1968 The history of Europe in the twentieth century can be compared to a large jigsaw puzzle The picture that will finally emerge will show wars uneasy peace crises depression nation ideologies and power blocs The pieces of political history will not form the picture alone without the pieces of economic history yet their similarities will confuse many This volume isolates economic history but its framework follows and illuminates political history The editors focus on the major industrial countries Britain France Germany the Soviet Union and to a lesser extent Italy between World War I and the mid 1950 s These dates are not arbitrary The Great War as it was called until there was a greater marked the end of the nineteenth century and everything economically and politically associated with it The overcommitment of all the belligerents and the establishment of the Soviet system shaped events from which there was no turning back Through public documents speeches legislation international agreements official inquiries the reader of this volume can follow the postwar crisis with inflation war debt chaos in eastern Europe attempts at land reform and fiscal reform The story continues into the recovery and stagnation of the late 1920 s Soviet economic policy the Depression and the emergence of the economics of Fascism The final sections deal with World War II and the new Europe that emerged from it The editors have not gone on to the 1960 s because a historical perspective is hardly possible at so close a range Throughout the volume there is a stress not only on the tremendous extent to which economic life has been affected by war and political upheaval but also a common sense emphasis on the importance of short term economic change rather than on economic theory A large number of the documents given here especially Soviet material have never been translated into English before SHEPARD B CLOUGH is a professor of history at Columbia University Among his books are The Economic Development of Western Civilization The Rise and Fall of Civilization and France A History of National Economics 1789 1939 THOMAS MOODIE and CAROL MOODIE teach at Lake Forest College in Illinois Europe's Third World Derek H. Aldcroft, 2016-04-29 Economic historians have perennially addressed the intriguing question of comparative development asking why some countries develop much faster and further than others Focusing primarily on Europe between 1914 and 1939 this present volume explores the development of thirteen countries that could be said to be categorised as economically backward during this period Albania Bulgaria Estonia Greece Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Portugal Romania Spain Turkey and Yugoslavia These countries are linked not only in being geographically on Europe s periphery but all shared high agrarian components and income levels much lower than those enjoyed in western European countries The study shows that by 1918 many of these countries had structural characteristics which either relegated them to a low level of development or reflected their economic backwardness characteristics that were not helped by the hostile economic climate of the interwar period It explores region by region how their progress was checked by war and depression and how the effects of political and social factors could also be a major impediment to sustained progress and modernisation For example in many cases political corruption and instability deficient administrations ethnic and religious diversity agrarian structures and backwardness population pressures as well as international friction were retarding factors In all this study offers a fascinating insight into many areas of Europe that are often ignored by economists and historians It demonstrates that these countries were by no means a lost cause and that their post war performances show the latent economic potential that most harboured By providing an insight into the development of Europe s periphery a much more rounded and complete picture of the continent as a whole is achieved

The Third Reich and Yugoslavia Perica Hadzi-Jovancic,2020-08-06 The Third Reich and Yugoslavia focuses on economic and political affairs between the Third Reich and Yugoslavia before Germany attacked in April 1941 It observes the relations between the two countries primarily from an economic perspective with the political dimension forming a backdrop within which the economy operated Perica Hadzi Jovancic challenges the conventional scholarly wisdom which recognises economics as mainly being a tool of German foreign policy towards Yugoslavia Instead he successfully places economic dealings on both sides within the broader context of both the German economic and financial plans and policies of the 1930s as well as the existing trading ties between the two countries as they had been developing since the 1920s At the same time through detailed analysis of unpublished archival material Hadzi Jovancic explores the shared political relations from a new perspective one from which there is a much deeper understanding of Yugoslavia's motives and the resulting implications for the other great powers and the wider regional framework The book concludes that contrary to the traditional view in historiography and despite the dependency of Yugoslavia's foreign trade on the German market at the dawn of the Second World War Yugoslavia maintained both its economic and political agency in the shadow of the Third Reich It was only international political developments beyond Yugoslavia's control in the years ahead that lead to a more receptive stance towards German demands

The Anxious Triumph Donald Sassoon, 2019-06-27 A magnum opus an accessible and genuinely global history This is a book for today and tomorrow Financial Times Capitalist enterprise has existed in some form since ancient times but the globalization and dominance of capitalism as a system began in the 1860s when in different forms and supported by different political forces states all over the world developed their modern political frameworks the unifications of Italy and Germany the establishment of a republic in France the elimination of slavery in the American south the Meiji Restoration in Japan the emancipation of the serfs in Tsarist Russia This book magnificently explores how after the upheavals of industrialisation a truly global capitalism followed For the first time in the history of humanity there was a social system able to provide a high level of consumption for the majority of those who lived within its bounds Today capitalism dominates the world With wide ranging scholarship Donald Sassoon analyses the impact of capitalism on the histories of many different states and how it creates winners and losers by constantly innovating This chronic instability he writes is the foundation of its advance not a fault in the system or an incidental by product And it is this instability this constant churn which produces the anxious triumph of his title To control or alleviate such anxieties it was necessary to create a national community if necessary with colonial adventures to develop a welfare state to intervene in the market economy and to protect it from foreign competition Capitalists needed a state to discipline them to nurture them and to sacrifice a few to save the rest a state overseeing the war of all against all Vigorous argumentative surprising and constantly stimulating The Anxious Triumph gives a fresh perspective on all these questions and on its era It is a masterpiece by one of Britain s most engaging and wide ranging historians ... Business and Politics in Europe, 1900-1970 Terry Gourvish,2003-08-28 This book reflects an increased interest in establishing connections between the political history and the business history of Europe in the twentieth century The book includes research on the interactions of politicians businessmen and their institutions in eight countries with particular focus on the highly charged inter war period Fourteen essays cover subjects under four main headings the business politics paradigm banking finance business and politics in the National Socialist period and the business community and the state Together they form a fitting tribute to the academic scholarship and inspiration offered by Alice Teichova In her distinguished career and in particular after the publication of her path breaking book An Economic Background to Munich in 1974 she did much to stimulate a collaborative approach to international comparative work in the field of economic political and business history The case studies presented here demonstrate her considerable legacy to the subject

Rethinking The Third World Rosemary E. Galli,2016-04-29 First published in 1991 This is a collection of essays that deal with the various issues of Third World development and additionally propose unique ways of looking at them as well as more radical thinking Based on experience and research the essays are provocative and provide an alternative approach to fundamental Third World problems that will be useful for both students and scholars Catalog University of Colorado Boulder,1998

The European Economy Since 1914 Derek Aldcroft,Steven Morewood,2012-12-07 The fifth edition of The European Economy provides a succinct and lucid account of the development and problems of the European economy since the first world war It covers the whole of Europe including Russia and Turkey The text divides into several clearly defined sub periods the impact and aftermath of the first world war and recovery and reconstruction during the 1920s the depression and the recovery of the 1930s the impact of the second world war and the new political division in Europe the post war boom of the 1950s and 1960s and then into the growth slowdown of the 1970s and the persistent problems of inflation and unemployment It then analyses the demise of the centrally planned economies of eastern Europe and the move to a more united Europe and then

discusses the financial and economic problems that have emerged in the early twenty first century This new edition has been extensively revised new chapters have been added and the reading lists updated Though the volume is designed as a basic introductory text the authors elicit some of the lessons that can be learnt from a study of past development one of which is the limited power of governments to influence the course of events and to combat the operation of market forces The European Economy Since 1914 Derek Howard Aldcroft, Steven Morewood, 2013 The European Economy Since 1914 provides an invaluable guide to the major economic changes in both Western and Eastern Europe during the twentieth century In the Mirror of the Third World Sandra Halperin, 2018-09-05 In Marx's familiar dictum the more developed country shows the less developed an image of its own future Turning this idea upside down In the Mirror of the Third World looks to the contemporary Third World for a reflection of European history The resulting view challenges standard accounts of European social economic and political development Sandra Halperin's analysis of the European experience begins where studies of Third World development often start considering the legacies of colonial domination Europe also had a colonial past she reminds us and the states of Europe like those of today's Third World were the product of colonialism and imperialism From this starting point Halperin traces features characteristic of Third World development through the history of European capitalism enclave economies oriented to foreign markets weak middle classes alliances among the state traditional landowning elites and new industrial classes unstable and partial democracy sharp inequalities and increasing poverty all as much a part of European society on the eve of World War I as they are of developing countries today Halperin also emphasizes the emergence of a militant literal religion in Europe and its critical role in the class struggles of the nineteenth century Register of the University of California University of California (1868-1952), 1950

Bibliography of European Economic and Social History Derek Howard Aldcroft, Richard Rodger, 1993 This bibliographical guide contains 10 000 references to the economic and social history of 30 European countries during the period 1700 1939 More than 3000 periodicals have been consulted to obtain references as well as books edited collections and conference proceedings The information is listed in categories such as industry agriculture finance migration labour conditions urban communities and organizations Full publication details are included so that references may be located easily
