Reflections on 21st Century Human Habitats in India Mahabir S. Jaglan, Rajeshwari, 2021-07-31 This book highlights various dimensions of human habitats in 21st Century India The human habitats in the country are marked by perceptible inequality in social and economic spheres This is occurring in tandem with rapid socio economic transformation across both rural and urban landscapes There is a plurality of transformative characteristics in terms of social and economic classes gender and space Inequality in access to natural resources such as land and water is still a big factor in socio economic differentiation in rural habitats This constructs a pedestal of unequal opportunities and access to basic human necessities such as healthcare education potable water and sanitation Human habitats experiencing socio spatial segregation and exclusion based on caste community and gender are detrimental in formation of a civil society and its sustainability in long terms The ideal situation for this would be formation of an inclusive society that celebrates age old socio cultural diversities reduces inequalities and reveres composite culture Asian Bibliography ,1998 Publication ,1994 Northern

Sustainabilities: Understanding and Addressing Change in the Circumpolar World Gail Fondahl, Gary N. Wilson, 2017-01-03 This edited volume examines the multiple dimensions of sustainability in the Circumpolar North a territory facing unprecedented environmental and social challenges at the start of the 21st century The chapters explore the cultural economic political and environmental aspects of sustainability as well as examples of successful research collaboration with northern and indigenous communities By examining a wide range of issues and places the contributions highlight the diversity of the Circumpolar North the challenges and opportunities it faces and the ways in which people and communities are adapting to and influencing the changing circumstances of this dynamic region Contributors include both Indigenous and non Indigenous researchers from eleven different countries and from across the career spectrum This book will appeal to an academic audience interested in the manifold facets of sustainability in the Arctic and sub arctic regions of the world Florence in Transition Marvin Becker, 2019-08-01 Originally published in 1968 In the pluralistic society of the medieval commune informal and personal ties of obligation bound men together In trecento Florence this gentle communal structure gradually evolved into the stricter more centralized organization characteristic of the modern state A growing emphasis on law and order transformed the medieval commune of the early fourteenth century into the Renaissance territorial state of the latter half of the century Professor Becker's subject is this metamorphosis Following his study of the declining communal paideia in Volume One the author examines in this second volume the growing vigor of public world as well as the attendant depersonalization and repression He is concerned primarily with two factors that he considers the major forces producing the Renaissance territorial state and encouraging the growth of imperial government and constitutionalism the intrusion of new citizens novi cives into politics after 1343 and the skyrocketing of communal debt Thus the author disputes Burckhardt's idea of the state as a work of art viewing it instead as a creation of socioeconomic mobility and deficit financing Further in examining art and literature as symptoms of developing public culture and reactions to it Professor Becker interprets them as indications of increased public involvement of the Florentine citizens thus providing a sharp refutation of Burckhardt's egoistic violent Renaissance man The author concludes his study with a detailed description of the territorial state itself pointing out the new relationship between citizen and polis which emerged in the early fifteenth century These two volumes provide a compelling and challenging interpretation of a crucial period in Western history
