Economic Thought and Policy in Less Developed Europe Maria Eugenia Mata, Michalis Psalidopoulos, 2001-12-06

The essays in this volume explore and discuss the process of dissemination of economic ideas among Europe's less developed countries and regions as well as the interaction between economic thought and economic policy in different times and places during the nineteenth century. The comparative approach adopted sheds new light on the course of economic development in Europe's less developed countries in the nineteenth century and the role played by political economy. Amongst a host of others the topics covered include economic policy in Denmark, monetary and trade policy in Norway, the influence of the German Historical School in Finland, land reform and the abolition of serfdom in Russia and in Poland. With contributions that disclose important insights into national traditions in economic thought and policy and the diffusion of ideas in Europe, this work will be essential reading for all scholars of the history of economic thought.
