Nziku,John J. Struthers,2021-06-11 Presenting a topical analysis of the challenges and achievements of enterprise Enterprise and Economic Development in Africa examines contributions to economic development on the continent as well as exploring implications for policy dimensions Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises (SMEs) and Poverty Reduction in Africa Ameen Alharbi,Abdul M. Kanu,Aminu Mamman,2015-06-18 Small and Medium Sized Enterprises SMEs and Poverty Reduction in Africa addresses the vital question of why the millions of dollars of governments and international development interventions in the SMEs sector are yet to deliver significant and sustainable employment and poverty reduction in Africa The book also addresses the question of how the SMEs sector can help in the eradication of poverty in Africa The book also tackles the question of what policy makers SMEs operators would be entrepreneurs and trainers can do to contribute to poverty reduction through the SMEs sector To address these three key questions the book has adopted innovative concepts and ideas that will appeal to the sensibilities of African policy makers trainers business operators and would be entrepreneurs For example the existing literature on system thinking and spirituality in business is used to offer a novel approach and departure from the perennial focus on technical training and hardnosed pursuit of individualised business and personal goals as a means of developing entrepreneurs and crafting SMEs policy The key features of the book are a focus on changing the mind set of SMEs operators policy makers trainers and would be entrepreneurs contextualising the role of SMEs in poverty reduction by emphasizing the relevance of the African worldview belief systems and spirituality during policy making policy implementation and training of SMEs operators and would be entrepreneurs theoretical explanations to why good intentions in policy formulation and implementation do not deliver expected outcomes in terms of the SMEs sector s contribution to poverty reduction practical guidelines on how SMEs can develop a poverty related mission statement business strategy and business plan within the context of poverty reduction personal development guidelines for SMEs operators and prospective entrepreneurs on how to develop poverty related personal mission statements and strategies the introduction of spiritual poverty and system thinking as the foundation for policy formulation and poverty reduction interventions in Africa      African Economic History ,2005      African Entrepreneurship Alusine Jalloh,1999 Between 1961 and 1978 Muslim Fula immigrants from different West African countries became one of the most successful mercantile groups in Freetown the capital city of Sierra Leone African Entrepreneurship published by Ohio University Press on December 31 1999 examines the commercial activities of Fula immigrants and their offspring in Sierra Leone Author Alusine Jalloh explores the role of Islam in Fula commercial organizations and social relationships as well as the connection between Fula merchants and politics Departing from the prevailing scholarship Jalloh characterizes the Fula businesses as independent rather than appendages of Western expatriate commerce In addition to establishing successful businesses Fula merchants established Islamic educational institutions for propogating the Muslim faith and promoting Islamic scholarship This study also examines the evolution of Fula chieftaincy from the colonial era to the postcolonial period and documents the importance of mercantile wealth and networks in the election of Fula chiefs in Freetown African Entrepreneurship makes an important contribution to the understudied role of African business in Sierra Leone
